

Letter from Alexander Melville Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, February 26, 1880

Brantford, Ont., February 26, 80. (No envelope) My dear Al.,

Yours of February 12th, received today, having been detained in the Dead letter Office. There is a third Washington Dead Letter, which has not yet come to hand. Get a letter wafer and always use it! I start for Boston on Saturday evening (29th) hoping to finish the business of transfer on Monday, March 1st. I am writing this in haste at your Uncle's.

Glad to hear that all is going on well.

Love to all from all.

Your affectionate father, Alex. Melville Bell.
