

Letter from Arthur W. McCurdy to R. B. Adams, July 23, 1897

July 23rd. 1897. Mr. B. B. Adams. Dear Sir:—

Your note of the 15th. instant addressed to Mr. Graham Bell suggesting the manufacture of a coat of arms received.

Mr. Bell cannot give an order for anything of that kind at the present time, but desires me to enclose his check for fifty dollars to be repaid in the autumn as you suggest.

If there should be any work that Mr. Bell would like to have done at any time in the future he will not forget to communicate with you. He wishes you every success, and hopes you will call and see him after his return to Washington.

Yours truly, Arthur Private Secretary.
