

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Miss Boyd, November 5, 1901

November 5, 1901. Dear Miss Boyd:

Your note on October 22 has been forwarded to me here. Of course my dear little girl, you may rely upon me to give you in confidence any information in my power respecting the deaf gentleman you mention — or rather do NOT mention — for you do not give his name.

You can write to me in Washington — 1331 Conn. Ave. marking your letter PERSONAL, and it will come directly to me instead of passing through the hands of my private secretary. I expect to return to Washington in the course of a few days.

With kind regards and best wishes for your welfare and happiness, I am

Your sincere friend, Alexander Graham Bell
