

Letter from D. C. Gilman to Alexander Graham Bell, November 30, 1900

JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY, BALTIMORE. PRESIDENT'S OFFICE. Nov. 30, 1900.

Dear Mr. Bell:—

I have received two notes from Mrs. Ida E. Chamberlin, of Boston with whom I am not acquainted, asking me to become one of a Board of Reference for the Helen Keller School. She sends me nothing in type, and her letters are not as clear as I wish they were. I miss your name among the persons that she refers to, and I do not like to give my name without some assurance that the project is a good one. If you know anything about it, will you kindly give me a word?

Yours sincerely, D. G. Gilman
Alex. Graham Bell Esq.
