Personal history

Mrs. [Nicke?] Margetis was born in Skyros, Greece, about 1893, coming to this country twenty-three years ago. Mr. Margetis came to this country when a boy. He was in business, [Lansing?], Michigan when he decided to return to Greece for a visit. There he met Mrs. Margetis. They were married in Greece and came to the United States. They first lived in Lansing, Michigan, later moving to Anderson, Indiana,. After residing there for a time, they moved to Madison, where the family now reside.

On the trip from New York to Lansing Mrs. Margetis saw many frame houses which were new to her, as the houses in her old home were built either of marble or stone. Wood was never used, as it was so expensive. Even the barns were made of stone. [?]
