HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

St. Helena Island Parish Church, Edgar Fripp Mausoleum

HABS No. SC- 591

Location: On South Carolina Secondary Road 45, near its junction with South Carolina Secondary Road 37, in St. Helena Island, Beaufort County, South Carolina

Date of Construction: 1852 (date on mausoleum)

Architect: William T. White

Present Use: Mausoleum

Significance: The Edgar Fripp Mausoleum is an outstanding example of mid-19th century gravestone art and architecture and reflects the social status of the deceased. Built of stone in the Egyptian Revival style, this 7 foot tall, 6 foot wide, and 7 foot deep structure has Egyptian columns in antis. The entrance is bricked.

The Edgar Fripp Mausoleum was nominated to the National Register of Historic Places at the South Carolina State Board of Review on February 27, 1988.
