ALLEN RECORD

- I. SAMUEL¹ ALLEN. As yet no records have been found which clearly point out the ancestry of Samuel Allen, where or when he was born, or just when he emigrated to this country, yet from all the known circumstances connected with him, we are inclined to adopt the theory of Mr. Francis Olcott Allen, who has given the subject much thought, that he came over with the Dorchester Company in 1630, and settled primarily at Dorchester, Mass. The reason that the present Dorchester records do not mention his name is probably due to the fact that the first of said records are missing; and allusion is also made to a book containing names of the grantees from the beginning. This belief was shared by William Allen, D. D., of Northampton, who says in a note to Christian Sonnets, published in 1860, that his ancestor came from the West of England with the Dorchester people in the ship Mary and John in 1630. Dr. Allen was greatly interested in the ancestry of his family and gave the subject much thought, so his testimony is the more valuable.

Windsor, Conn., was largely settled by Dorchester people, which fact strengthens the belief that Samuel Allen was from that source. However, the first undoubted official record of Samuel Allen is found in the Windsor land records as follows:

"Jan. 27, 1640, Samuel Allen hath granted from the plantation at Windsor, Conn.:

1st, An house lot, being six acres, three rods, ten poles, bounded from the rivulet to the west by Rodger Ludlow, on the south, by Thomas Marshall on the north, and runs in length to the west into a highway laid out into some part of the lot of said Rodger Ludlow and his, the said Samuel Allen.

2nd, In Plymouth Meadow, four acres bounded by Bray Rossiter on the north and a rivulet that runs into the Great river on the South.

3rd, Toward Hartford, nineteen acres, more or less, and runs in length to the Great River to the west one hundred and thirty and four rods, and is bounded by John Witchfield on the north and by Thomas Marshfield on the south.

4th, Over the Great River next to the same, fifteen rods in breadth, in the length to the east three miles; bounded by Joseph Larmus on the South, John Hurd on the North."

But little has come down to us of Samuel Allen, save that he was a farmer, was a man of public spirit and was chosen a jurymen March 8, 1644. He was buried in Windsor, April 28, 1648, and is said to have been 60 years of age, but no proof is given for the statement, and from the fact that his widow survived him 39 years, it may well be inferred that from 35 to 40 years would be nearer to his correct age. His property inventoried Sept. 8, 1648, at 76 pounds, 18 shillings, 8 pence.

The widow

ANN ALLEN (maiden name unknown) married William Hurlbut, who also had settled in Windsor, and was from Dorchester. They removed to Northampton, Mass., in 1657, taking the Allen children with them. Ann Allen Hurlbut died Nov. 13, 1687. William Hurlbut died April 17, 1694. It is doubted if children were born to them after the second marriage.

Children of Samuel and Ann Allen:

(The order of their birth is uncertain, but using the dates of their marriages as a basis, the following is probably the order.)

3. SAMUEL^s ALLEN (Nehemiah,^s Samuel¹), born Jan.
3, 1665; married
MERCY WRIGHT, born March 14, 1669, daughter of Judah and Mercy Wright of Northampton. Mercy, wife of Judah Wright, was daughter of Henry and Eulalia Burt, the English emigrants to Springfield, Mass. Judah Wright, father of Mercy, wife of Samuel Allen, was born May 10, 1642, and the son of Dea. Samuel Wright the emigrant, and is found in Springfield, Mass., Dec. 12, 1639, where he soon became deacon of the first Church there. He removed to Northampton in 1655, and died there 1665. Survived by wife, Mary Wright. He was descended from John Wright of Kelveden, County Essex, England.

Samuel Allen was first of Northampton; he removed thence to Deerfield, where on Dec. 8, 1705, he bought of Samuel Carter the lot later known as the Dr. Willard place, now opposite the Unitarian Church. Carter had bought the place in 1694 with a house on it. The present Dr. Willard house was built in 1768 by Joseph Barnard. In the rear of this house is a small ell, very ancient in appearance and construction, which is probably the same house bought by Samuel Allen, and in which Joseph Allen, the father of Gen. Ethan Allen, was born. Samuel Allen sold this place in 1711 to Samuel Barnard and bought the Hawks place in Wapping (Deerfield), which in turn he sold in 1713, and soon removed to Coventry, Conn., where he died on Oct. 14, 1718. In 1720 his widow, with her children, removed to Litchfield, Conn., where she died Feb. 9, 1728, aged 59. She inherited some property from her father's estate for we find years afterwards that her children sold their several interests to their uncles, Judah and Ebenezer Wright, of Northampton. She purchased quite a large tract of land in Litchfield, for, on her death her son Daniel, as executor, conveyed on March 1, 1729, one-third of the sum to his brother Joseph, who, in 1732, sold one hundred acres to his sister Lydia, and the same amount to Paul Peak, Jr. The will of Mercy Allen was made in Litchfield, Jan., 1727-8, and probated April 24, 1728, in Woodbury. She gives to her son Daniel quite liberally, and makes him sole executor. Her remaining estates she divides among her children and mentions, daughter Mercy, wife of Eliakin Root of Coventry, daughter Mary Smalley; daughter Lydia Allen, at home; sons Joseph and Ebenezer of Litchfield. No mention is made of Lucy, who was doubtless deceased, but alive when the removal was made to Litchfield. The eldest son, Nehemiah, of Guilford, was appointed guardian to brother Joseph, and Daniel to brother Ebenezer. The final settlement has not been found on record.

Children of Samuel and Mercy Allen:

- i. NEHEMIAH, born Sept. 21, 1693; died young.
- ii. MERCY, born June 29, 1695; died March 27, 1728.
- iii. NEHEMIAH, born Sept. 19, 1697.

5. ix. JOSEPH, born at Deerfield, Oct. 14, 1708.
 - x. EBENEZER, born April 26, 1711.
 - xi. LUCY, died before 1728, as her name is not mentioned in her mother's will.
4. DANIEL⁴ ALLEN (Samuel,³ Nehemiah,² Samuel¹), born in Northampton, Mass., Nov. 1, 1701; married April 28, 1737,

MARY GRANT, of Litchfield, Conn. He was the executor of his mother's estate in 1728. On July 28, 1742, he sold all his land in Litchfield, amounting to 259 acres, for 800 pounds, and is mentioned in the deed as of Cornwall, Conn., where he spent the remainder of his life. He made his will July 1, 1745, which was probated Oct. 29, 1747, in Cornwall, so that it would seem that he died early in October, 1747. The record of the distribution of the estate may be found in the date of May 13, 1762, in Probate Records of Litchfield, Conn., Vol. 2, p. 79.

Children born in Litchfield:

- i. MERCY, born Jan. 24, 1738.
7. ii. ELIHU, born May 4, 1739.

- iii. GABRIEL, born Dec. 12, 1742.
- iv. DANIEL, born June 19, 1744.
- v. ELIJAH, born in 1748, some months after his father's death.

5. JOSEPH⁴ ALLEN (Samuel,³ Nehemiah,² Samuel¹), born at Deerfield, Mass., Oct. 14, 1708; married March 11, 1736-7.

MARY BAKER, born Jan., 1708-9, at Woodbury, Conn. She was the daughter of John and Sarah Baker.

Joseph Allen removed with his parents from Deerfield to Coventry, Conn., and in 1720 went with his widowed mother and her children to Litchfield, where, after her death in 1728, he bought one-third of the estate. In 1740 he removed to Cornwall, Conn., where he died April 4, 1755. The date of his widow's death has not been ascertained. Of their children, Ethan was born in Litchfield, the others in Cornwall, Conn.

Children:

6. i. ETHAN, born Jan. 10, 1737-8.
 - ii. HEMAN, born Oct. 15, 1740.
 - iii. LYDIA, born April 6, 1742.
 - iv. HEBER, born April 4, 1743.
 - v. LEVI, born Jan. 16, 1745.
 - vi. LUCY, born April 2, 1747.
 - vii. ZIMRI, born Dec. 10, 1748.
 - viii. IRA, born April 21, 1751.
6. ETHAN^s ALLEN (Joseph,⁴ Samuel,³ Nehemiah,² Samuel¹), born in Litchfield, Conn., Jan. 10, 1737-8; married June 25, 1762,

MARY BRONSON, daughter of Cornelius Bronson, Jr., of Woodbury, Conn. She was born in 1732. She was a pious and most excellent woman. She died at Sunderland, Vt., in the early part of 1783.

He married, 2nd, Feb. 9, 1784,

FRANCES BUCHANAN, widow of Capt. John Buchanan of the British Navy. She was born April 4, 1760, probably in New York City. She was the daughter of Captain Montreson, who was an officer in the British Army and who lost his life in one of the battles of the period.

Ethan Allen commenced his married life at Salisbury, Conn., where he had an interest in an iron mine; then removed to Sheffield, a border town in Massachusetts. It was probably in 1767, when he first went to Vermont to spy out the land of his future exploits. He seems to have made Bennington, Vt., his headquarters for some years, where his house at the old center remained till a few years ago. His family remained for a time at Sheffield. The story of his gallant leadership of the Green Mountain Boys in their conflict with the authorities of New York, his romantic capture of Fort Ticonderoga and his life as a military prisoner of the British is too well known to be recounted here. He was exchanged May 6, 1778, for Col. Campbell and Congress mindful of his services, sent him a Commission as Colonel in the Continental Army, and the Legislature appointed him Major General and commander of the Vermont militia. On his return home from captivity he rejoined his family at Sunderland, Vermont, where they had removed in 1777, from Sheffield, and soon after removed to Arlington, which town he represented in the Vermont Legislature in 1779. He was also sent as a special delegate to the Continental Congress. He removed to Burlington in 1787, and bought a farm once belonging to his brother Ira, on the Burlington side of the Winooski River, about one and one-half miles from the city of Burlington. This has since been known as the Van Ness estate, where he lived at the time of his death, which occurred suddenly, Feb. 12, 1789. His funeral was held at the house of his brother Ira, in Colchester, and he was interred with the honors of war in the Cemetery at Burlington, where a grateful State has erected a suitable monument to his memory. This monument consists of a shaft crowned by a statue of the hero in the act of demanding the surrender of Fort Ticonderoga. It was designed by Stephenson and dedicated in 1873. The State of Vermont has placed his statue in the Capitol at Montpelier and sent another to forever commemorate his fame at the National Capitol and the hero deserves all this and more at the hands of a State for which he accomplished so much. Ethan Allen was an unique character in our history. He was a terror to his foes, an uncompromising patriot, whose love of justice and country outweighed all other considerations, but combined with his sternness he possessed a heart as tender as a woman's for those deserving sympathy, which noble characteristic was often exemplified in his varied career. In the mellowing process of the years his foibles have been forgotten, his virtues remembered, so his fame will be as lasting as the hills of his adopted State.

the Year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twelve and in the Thirty-sixth Year of our Independence.

Passed the Secretary's Office, the } DANIEL D. TOMPKINS.
2nd day of April, 1812. }

ELISHA JENKINS, SECRETARY.

STATE OF NEW YORK: ss
MONTGOMERY COUNTY:

On the 21st day of May, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twelve, the within named ENOS ALLEN came before me and took and subscribed the oath of allegiance and the oath to support the Constitution of the United States.

JACOB MARKELL

One of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Montgomery.

ENOS ALLEN was born at Cornwall, Conn., in 1774. His parents removed to Williston, Vt., in 1776. They were driven from there by the British and moved to Salisbury, Vt., where they lived till the close of the war. His father, Elihu Allen, was a soldier in the American Revolution and served from the state of Vermont.

Enos taught school at Westfield, Vt., in Dec., 1800. His grandson has the contract in which he agreed to teach for a term of three months at the rate of $7.00 a month. The contract was signed by Enos, and no doubt he was the first teacher there, as the town was first settled the year before. He was probably married about 1802, as his oldest son, Sydney, was born in 1803. The date of his marriage is not stated on the records. He moved to the State of New York prior to 1812, as we have a commission dated Feb., 1812, given to him as Lieutenant of a Company in the Regiment of Infantry in the County of Montgomery, N. Y., Cornelius Drake being the Lieutenant Colonel commanding. A Lieutenant at that time commanded companies the same as Captains. It would thus seem that he served in the War of 1812, in the New York Militia.

Several families emigrated from Salisbury, Vt., and settled in Herkimer County, N. Y., and named the place Salisbury. Enos with his family moved to Hurd's Corners, which is now called Rock Stream, Yates County, N. Y., in 1814. He owned and lived on a farm there the remainder of his life. His wife was ANN ELIZABETH MURRAY FRENCH. When he married her she was a widow with one child, who was born in 1798. We have no record of her first husband.

It is probable from this record that at least four of the older children of Enos Allen were born in Vermont, and that Laura Allen was one of them.

Enos and his wife died at Rock Stream and were buried in the cemetery at that place.

The house in which Enos lived and where Laura Allen was married is now standing in a state of good preservation and is the residence of Edgar Allen, grandson of Enos, who owns the property.

Mr. B. F. Allen, of Dundee, N. Y., writes July, 1916, that he thinks the above record as near right as can be ascertained. He says he has heard Harlow French say he came with oxen and sled from Herkimer County, N. Y., to Rock Stream, N. Y., with the family a little in advance of their parents. Besides the children the cargo consisted of a few household goods, including a brass kettle and a wooden clock, which Mr. Allen still has in his possession. The clock is running every day and keeping excellent time.

STATE OF VERMONT
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE
MONTPELIER.

February 7th, 1916.

I HEREBY CERTIFY, That the following is a correct transcript from the records on file in this office, regarding soldiers who served in the Revolutionary War. Extract: From Vermont Revolutionary Records.

Military Service of

Page 580, Document No. 167.

William Murray, on the Pay Roll as Corporal in Captain Joshua Babcock's Company in the Battalion commanded by Ebenezer Walbridge, Esq., Lt. Col. Commanding, in the service of the State of Vermont, 1781. Commencing of service May 1, 1781, Ending, November 14, 1781. For 193 days and 70 miles travel he was paid 14 pounds, 16 shillings, 9 pence.

The Pay Roll was approved and dated Sunderland, Aug. 21, 1783, and paid by the Treasurer to Thomas Tolman, Paymaster, Oct. 2, 1784.

EDWARD BAKER,

Assistant Adjutant General.

Orrin Peer Allen, of Palmer, Mass., makes the following comments regarding the Murray family:

"I found in Hemenway's History of Vermont that the Murray and French families were early settlers in Williston, Vt., which doubtless accounts for the fact of the marriage of Enos Allen to Ann Elizabeth Murray."

"I find that the Murrays have been one of the most distinguished families of Scotland from very early times dating back to 1266. There have been Dukes, Earls and Viscounts, etc., among the Murrays. The Murrays of Scotland and England have borne 47 Coats of Arms; a good record surely. In Savage's Genealogy of New England, I find but one Murray mentioned, that of James Murray, who came from Scotland to Dover, N. H., in 1698; nothing further of him. In the History of Guilford, Conn., I find that Jonathan Murray came from Scotland to Guilford, Conn., in 1687, married Ann Bradley and died Aug. 27, 1747."

"It seems from the memoranda of Ann Elizabeth Murray that Robert Murray came to this country early in the 18th century, and that, according to the above, the Murrays were living at Williston, Vt., also Elihu Allen and the French families were living at Williston, Vt. Enos Allen taught school at Westfield, Vt., which is near Williston, in 1800, and this would account for his marriage with Ann Elizabeth Murray French, who was a widow when he married her, probably in 1801-2."

"I also have certificate from the Adjutant General's Office, of the State of Vermont, as follows:

Military Service of William Murray, Page 580, Document No. 167.

William Murray, on the Pay Roll as Corporal in Capt. Joshua Babcock's Company in the Battalion commanded by Ebenezer Walbridge, Esq., Lt. Col. Commanding, in the service of the State of Vermont, 1781. Commencing of service, May 1, 1781; ending November 14, 1781. For 193 days and 70 miles travel he was paid 14 pounds, 16 shillings, 9 pence.

The Pay Roll was approved and dated Sunderland, Aug. 21, 1783, and paid by the treasurer to Thomas Tolman, Paymaster, Oct. 2, 1784."

"Whether this William Murray was the son of Robert Murray and father of Ann Elizabeth, it is difficult to determine at this time."

The Records of the Murray family are very incomplete, as we only have memoranda taken from the memory of Ann Elizabeth Murray in 1844, which gives only one date, that of her own birth. As this states that Robert Murray emigrated from England early in the 18th century and was undoubtedly Scotch, we may assume that he came to this country about 1710-15 and was married 1725-28. His son William, who was the fifth child, was probably born about 1742-44. The military records of Vermont show that one William Murray served in the Revolutionary War, but, as stated in remarks of Orrin Peer Allen, it is difficult to determine whether this William Murray who served in the Revolutionary War, was the father of Ann Elizabeth or not.

DUNHAM RECORD

THOMAS DUNHAM with two brothers and one sister, Ann, emigrated from England about 1788. They landed at Perth Amboy, N. J., and located for a while near New Brunswick, N. J. Ann married a man by the name of Davis and removed south. One of the brothers moved west, probably Ohio, and one remained in New Jersey. Thomas married in New Jersey, where he resided until near the year 1801, at which time he removed to Ovid, Seneca County, N. Y. Richard Dunham was born in Ovid Township. In 1811-12 Thomas again removed to Hector, Schuyler Co., N. Y., and later to Howard Township, Steuben County, N. Y., at which place he lived the remainder of his life. He had a severe sickness in his later years which left him weak in mind and body. He married in 1791, ANN CARRELL. She died in 1843; he survived her two years.

Their married life extended over a period of fifty years. Mr. Dunham died in 1845. They were buried in a small cemetery near Buena Vista, Howard Township, Steuben County, N. Y.

DESCENDANTS OF
RICHARD DUNHAM
AND HIS WIFE
LAURA ALLEN

LETTER FROM RICHARD DUNHAM

Sheffield, Aug. 23, 1846.

DEAR PARENTS:

I improve the present opportunity to let you know that through the blessing of Divine Providence we are all in a reasonable state of health, hoping these few lines may find you enjoying the same blessing. I acknowledge my neglect of not writing oftener and shall plead no excuse except a pressure of business, but wish you not to take pattern by us.

The season has been rather dry here and we had a late frost that killed our fruit, otherwise the season has been good and crops came in generally good. I have five barns well filled. Two of them, however, are small hay barns and one that I have built this season for a horse barn, thirty-six feet square, is only filled above.

My health has been better this season than it has been for four years past. Last Wednesday I pitched on the wagon and mowed away 2,421 sheaves of oats, and in a general way through the season have been able to be with my business.

Think of commencing to build a house in a few days if I can get workmen. Want to get it enclosed before winter. The upright part will be 24 x 36.

I have got to go to Cincinnati this fall if we have a rise of water sufficient. I did not go down last spring. The boys went with my lumber and made out very well, but since the first sales business has not been quite so brisk below.

Laura's health is middling good. Her hands remain free from salt rheum. She has got another girl. It was four months old yesterday. We call it Laura Antoinette.

We would like to have you come and see us this fall if you can. We shall come again when we can see a chance for us to leave home, it may be this winter or next fall.

Please write on reception of this and let us know how you all are; how Heman and his lady are getting along, Sofield and family and the rest of our friends, as far as you have information.

Albert A. was at Pittsburgh in June on business. He and Miner have got to be men grown. I realize their assistance in carrying on business very much. The rest of the children that are large enough are going to school and learn very well. Albert A. would like to come and live with you this winter and go to school if I could spare him and you had a good school there.

Give our respects to all inquiring friends. No more at present, but remain your affectionate children,

To E. & A. E. Allen.

R. & L. DUNHAM.

P. S.—Electa Ann sends her respects to her Aunt and Cousins.

RICHARD DUNHAM was the fifth son of Thomas Dunham, who came to this country from England about 1788 and settled in New Jersey. From there he removed to Ovid Township, Seneca Co., N. Y., about 1801, shortly before Richard was born. It is probable that Seneca County was a part of Tompkins Co., at that time. His father engaged in farming. Richard received his education, which was a good one in those days, in Ithaca, Tompkins Co., N. Y., and at the age of eighteen years he began to teach school. He owned a farm and varied this occupation by teaching in the winter. In 1832 he exchanged his farm in New York for one in Warren County, Pa. He was married in July, 1826, to LAURA ALLEN, daughter of Enos Allen, of Rock Stream, Yates Co., N. Y. In March, 1833, they removed to his new farm in what is now the Township of Cherry Grove, Warren Co., Pa., built a house on the tract of land known as Lot 646, Cherry Grove Township, which has since become famous on account of the immense oil well drilled there in 1882. The July after his arrival he began the life of a lumberman, first being employed by a firm to help them construct a saw-mill and dam, which he soon after bought of his partners. Soon after this he removed to Sheffield, which at that time had only a few settlers, among them being Timothy and Erastus Barnes. The history of that township refers to many of his business operations. He was quite active in all the affairs of the township, as well as the County, and was Justice of the Peace for twenty consecutive years. In 1856, on account of ill health, he relinquished his lumber business, retiring to some extent from business.

The following is from the History of Warren County:

"In May, 1832, Richard Dunham, with his wife and children, in company with Adam Pratt, crossed the Allegheny River at Shipman's Eddy, assisted by Matthew Morrison. The crossing was made with two large canoes lashed together, on which was a platform of boards. On this were transported the family and goods, while Dunham's cow and oxen swam the river behind the catamaran. The river being high, involved the party in considerable danger. On the south side of the river they met with John Inglesby, who had previously settled in the dense forests of what is now Cherry Grove Township, but had become discouraged and moved out again. Mr. Dunham employed him as a guide. Their road lay over the top of the mountain northwest of the site of the Stoneham Tannery, near which was a small log house occupied by a Mr. Brown, who had about an acre of land partly cleared. Here the party took dinner. The road was little more than a trail, the underbrush being cut off and the logs turned to one side far enough to let a sled pass. In many places they were compelled to widen the road in order that their wagon, the first one that had been over the ground, could pass. The first night they stopped at what was called the "Blacksley Chopping," about three miles southwest of the present site of the Clarendon Tannery. This was a chopping of two or three acres and no house. A shelter was made of hemlock boughs, in which the party passed a comfortable night. The next day they came to the house of Inglesby. They remained here several weeks, meantime repairing an old cabin on Dunham's land. In June they removed to this cabin, chopped and cleared ten acres, sowed it in wheat and had an excellent crop in the fall. In 1833 he left his place in Cherry Grove and engaged in lumbering a short distance north of Sheffield. The Post Office was called West Sheffield and Mr. Dunham was the postmaster. In the spring of 1835 Richard Dunham, Melchi Snapp and Adam Pratt built a schoolhouse in the woods near the spot where the Armstrong house stands. He also assisted in organizing the Methodist Episcopal Church. The first church was built in the village of Sheffield about 1868, largely through the efforts of Mr. Dunham and Horton, Crary & Co. In 1869 he moved with his family to Warren, Corner of Union St. and Pennsylvania Ave. He died the following year, 1870, the cause of his death being paralysis brought on by the asthma, with which he had been afflicted many years."

LAURA ALLEN, his wife, was born in 1805, about the time that her parents removed from Salisbury, Vt., to Salisbury, N. Y. She was probably born in Vermont. Her father, Enos Allen, was a son of Elihu Allen. Enos was a Captain of Militia of the State of New York in 1812, and his father, Elihu Allen, who was a cousin of General Ethan Allen, of Vermont, served in the Army of the Revolution from the State of Vermont. She was a woman of wonderful endurance, and during the time when medical attendance could not be obtained by the early settlers her advice was much sought after in cases of sickness and emergencies. She survived her husband about twenty-one years and resided at their home, cor. of Union St. and Pennsylvania Avenue, until her death.

Mr. Dunham was first buried in Sheffield, but later he and his children were all removed to Oakland Cemetery, Warren, Pa.

During the later years of Mrs. Dunham's life her daughter Electa resided with her and cared for her in her declining years. Electa was a remarkable woman. She was active in all the affairs of the Church and otherwise. Was President of the Missionary Society for a number of years. She was buried in the same lot with her parents in Oakland Cemetery, Warren, Pa.

MINER B. DUNHAM was born in Ovid Township, Seneca County (formerly Tompkins County), N. Y. He was the son of Richard Dunham and Laura Allen Dunham, and when they moved to Warren County in 1832 Miner was but three years old. He obtained his education from the schools of Sheffield Township; also at Havana, Schuyler Co., N. Y., and at Alfred, Allegany Co., N. Y. Meanwhile, he had become pretty thoroughly instructed in business, as he had the management of his father's business early in life. His father's health was never robust. He was afflicted with asthma, and when Miner was old enough to execute his father's plans he was set at work. His first trip on a raft to Pittsburgh was in 1841, when he was but twelve years of age, and he followed the river to Pittsburgh and Cincinnati with great regularity after 1845. In 1858 he purchased his father's homestead and all his property and his father retired from business. Among the lands purchased were tracts of pine timber in Cherry Grove and Watson Townships and Miner erected a mill near these pine lands and manufactured pine lumber for a number of years, which he rafted down the river to Pittsburgh and Cincinnati. In 1868 he was connected with a lumber yard and planing mill in Sharpsburg, which he operated for about three years. In 1871 he removed to Warren, Pa. In 1876 he erected a home on Pennsylvania Avenue, in which place his family have since resided. In 1874, he, with three other business men of Warren, erected a sash factory, now owned and operated by the L. D. Wetmore Company. Miner had an interest in this mill for four years. He was in the lumber business extensively until his death. He owned considerable stock in timber companies in the state of Washington.

He was a Director of the Warren Savings Bank for many years. He was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He never held many offices but was an active worker in the Republican Party. His second Presidential vote was cast for John C. Fremont. He married in 1852

MARY M. PERSON, daughter of Harrison Person, of Ellery, Chautauqua County, N. Y., who was a noted pilot on the Allegheny River. Mrs. Dunham at this date, 1916, resides at the home on Pennsylvania Avenue. She remembers her great grandfather very well and has great grandchildren, thus having seen seven generations. The married life of Mr. and Mrs. Dunham lacked only one month of being fifty years duration. Mr. Dunham died at his home in 1902 and was buried in Oakland Cemetery, Warren, Pa.
