Administrative Information

Provenance

The papers of Anna E. Dickinson, lecturer, reformer, actress, and author, were given to the Library of Congress in 1933 by Dickinson's estate. Additions to the papers were given in 1955 by Giraud Chester and by an unidentified donor, 1955-1958. A gift from James Harvey Young was received in 1984.

Processing History

The papers of Anna E. Dickinson were processed in 1979 and an addition was incorporated in 1985. When the collection was rehoused in 2003, the organization of the material remained unchanged. Although the finding aid and container list were revised to indicate the current container numbers, the numbers noted in the microfilm edition reflect the original housing.

Transfers

Some photographic prints and negatives have been transferred to the Prints and Photographs Division of the Library of Congress where they are identified as part of these papers.

Copyright Status

The status of copyright in the unpublished writings of Anna E. Dickinson is governed by the Copyright Law of the United States (Title 17, U.S.C.).

Access and Restrictions

The papers of Anna E. Dickinson are open to research. Researchers are advised to contact the Manuscript Reading Room prior to visiting. Many collections are stored off-site and advance notice is needed to retrieve these items for research use.

Microfilm

A microfilm edition of part of these papers is available on twenty-five reels. Consult reference staff in the Manuscript Division concerning availability for purchase or interlibrary loan. To promote preservation of the originals, researchers are required to consult the microfilm edition as available.

Scope and Content Note

The papers of Anna Elizabeth Dickinson (1842-1932) span the period 1859-1951, but are chiefly concentrated in the years 1859-1911. The collection consists of Family Correspondence, General Correspondence, Speeches and Writings File, Legal File, and a Miscellany series including financial papers, newspaper clippings, scrapbooks, and research notes of Giraud Chester, Dickinson's biographer. There are also a small Addition and an Oversize series.

Anna Dickinson's papers treat all aspects of her life and include correspondence with the men and women of her circle throughout the country. Although Dickinson did not make copies of most of her letters, she obtained many of the letters she wrote while on national lecture tours to Mary Dickinson, her mother, and Susan Dickinson, her journalist sister. The correspondence described her travel itineraries, her impressions, and her joys and misgivings. They show the reactions of a person whose plays and performances, including A Crown of Thorns and The Test of Honor, were not well received. By 1900 she was estranged from her sister Susan, formerly her closest friend and housemate, and had outlived most of her associates. As recorded in the legal file and in her scrapbooks, she initiated several lawsuits between 1895 and 1901 as a result of her confinement at the State Hospital for the Insane in Danville, Pennsylvania. Other topics include the elections of 1872 and 1888, the Republican Party, psychiatric hospital and her confinement to the State Hospital for the Insane, the Civil War and Reconstruction, and education.

The Speeches and Writings File, contains several of Dickinson's earliest speeches and stage manuscripts. Those not present are often documented by newspaper clippings and scrapbooks. A notebook in the Legal File records her experiences at the State Hospital for the Insane. Only obituaries and a few financial papers relate to her final two decades.

Organization of the Papers

The collection is arranged in seven series:

- Family Correspondence, 1860-1904
- General Correspondence, 1859-1911
- Speeches and Writings File, 1868-1907
- Legal File, 1881-1898
- Miscellany, 1863-1951
- Addition, 1862-1933
- Oversize, 1863-1877
