Scope and Content Note

The papers of Edward William Bok (1863-1930) span the years 1880-1926, with the bulk of the material dating from 1920 to 1925. The papers consist of a handwritten draft of Bok's Pulitzer Prize-winning autobiography, The Americanization of Edward Bok (1920); a biography of Bok's father-in-law, Cyrus H. K. Curtis, A Man From Maine (1923); and another autobiographical work, Twice Thirty (1925).

Also included in the Bok Papers are the typescript of The Americanization of Edward Bok and autograph albums dated 1880-1889. The autograph collection is made up of signatures of prominent American political, military, and literary figures. The collection contains letters to Bok as editor of the Ladies' Home Journal and a writing by Jessie Benton Frémont relating to the death of her husband, John C. Frémont. The manuscript was sent to Bok and is accompanied by a brief cover letter from Jessie Benton Frémont.
