
James Monroe to Thomas Jefferson, March 5,
1801, from Thomas Jefferson and James Monroe
Correspondence, Transcribed and Edited by Gerard W.
Gawalt, Manuscript Division, Library of Congress

James Monroe to Thomas Jefferson

Richmond 5 March 1801.

Dear Sir

Permit me to present to yr. acquaintance the bearer Mr. Voss of Culpepper county, a young man of merit, who has expressed a wish of being personally known to you. He is a lawyer by profession, of respectable standing at the bar, and a fair prospect of becoming imminent if he pursues his profession. He intends making a visit this spring to the South, and hearing that it is proposed to adjust the boundary line between the UStates and Georgia wished to be employed in that service. I am not acquainted with Mr. Voss's proficiency in the mathematics, but am persuaded he wod. not accept the trust is he did not think himself competent to the discharge of its duties. With great respect & esteem I am dear Sir yr. obt. servt. Jas. Monroe

RC (Jefferson Papers, Library of Congress).