Introduction

In 1970, "two cartons containing a collection of autograph manuscripts of contemporary composers" were given to the Library of Congress by Joseph A. Fischer, President of the J. Fischer & Bro. Music Publishers. This gift was the largest shipment of materials to the Library from the J. Fischer organization which had a tradition dating back to the early 1950s of donating music manuscripts and related materials to the Library.

Certain restrictions to the use or copying of the materials in this collection may apply.

Scope and Content Note

The J. Fischer & Bro. Music Publishers Collection consists of autograph manuscripts of music used for publishing purposes and dating from the period 1950 to 1970. The vast majority of the manuscripts are choral works, both sacred and secular, oftentimes with piano or organ accompaniment. In addition, original works for organ and piano are included as are piano and organ transcriptions. Most of these works were published by Fischer & Bro. Music Publishers.

Notable among the composers whose works are represented here are Jean Berger, Joseph Clokey, Paul Creston, Garth Edmundson, Robert Graham, Charles Haubiel, Camil Van Hulse, Philip James, Theron Kirk, Austin Lovelace, George Frederick McKay, Howard D. McKinney, Richard Purvis, Kathryn Hill Rawls, Carlo Rossini, Royal Stanton, William Grant Still, Homer Whitford, David H. Williams, Pietro Yon, and Gordon Young.

The 33 sheet music boxes which comprise this collection are arranged in alphabetical order by composer (or arranger). In addition to composer, arranger and title, the container list includes genre and format information. An alphabetical index of titles comprises Appendix A.
