Majesties Coronation.

Wednesday, the 11th of October 1727, being appointed for the Solemnity of the Coronation of his sacred Majesty
King GEORGE II. and of his Royal
Consort Queen CAROLINE, the Earl Marshal of England published, on the 22d of September, the following Orders, viz.

The Earl Marshal's Orders about the Mantles, Trains, Surcoats, Coronets, &c. of Peeresses.

THESE are to give Notice to all the Peeresses, that are to attend in the Royal Proceeding to their Majesties
B Coro-

Coronation, on the 11th of October next.

That the Robe or Mantle of a Baroneſs is to be of Crimſon Velvet, the Cape whereof to be furred with Meniver pure, and powder'd with two Bars or Rows of Ermine, the ſaid Mantle to be edged round with Meniver pure, two Inches in breadth, and the Train to be three Foot on the Ground ; her Coronet to be according to her Degree, viz. a Rim or Circle, with ſix Pearls upon the ſame, not raiſed upon Points.

That the Robe or Mantle of a Viſcounteſs be like that of a Baroneſs, only the Cape powdered with two Rows and an half of Ermine, the Edging of the Mantle two Inches, as before, and the Train a Yard and a Quarter ; her Coronet to be according to her Degree, viz. a Rim or Circle with Pearls thereon, ſixteen in Number, and not raiſed upon points.

That the Mantle of a Counteſs be as before, only the Cape powdered with three Rows of Ermine, the Edging three Inches in breadth, and the Train a Yard and a half ; her Coronet to be compoſed of eight Pearls raised upon Points or Rays, with small Leaves between above the Rim.

That the Mantle of a Marchioness be as before, only the Cape powdered with three Rows and a half of Ermine, the Edging four Inches in breadth, the Train a Yard and Three-quarters; her Coronet to be composed of four Leaves, and four Pearls raised upon Points of the same height as the Leaves, alternately, above the Rim. And,

That the Mantle of a Duchess be as before, only the Cape with four Rows of Ermine, the Edging five Inches broad, the Train two Yards; her Coronet to be composed of eight Leaves, all of equal height, above the Rim.

The Surcoats or Kirtles to be all of crimson Velvet, close bodied, and clasped before, edged or bordered with Meniver pure, two Inches broad, and scolloped down the sides from below the Girdle, and sloped away into a Train proportionable to the length of the Robe or Mantle for each Degree, viz. about a third Part thereof; the Sleeves of the Surcoats also to be of crimson Velvet, about five Inches deep, scolloped at the bottom, edged with Meniver pure, and fringed with Gold or Silver.

The Caps of their Coronets to be all of crimson Velvet turned up with Ermine, with a Button and Tassel of Gold or Silver on the Top, suitable to the Fringe of their Sleeves.

The Petticoats to be of Cloth of Silver, or any other white Stuff, either laced or embroidered, according to each Person's Fancy.

The Mantles to hang back, being fastened on each Shoulder with Cordons of Silver or Gold suitable to their Fringe, with Tassels of the same hanging on each Side down the Waste.

The Surcoats or Kirtles to open before, that the Petticoats may appear.

And it is likewise his Majesty's Pleasure, that all and every the Peers and Peereffes who shall attend the said Coronation, do forbear to set or use any Jewels or precious Stones in their Coronets.

And whereas Coachmakers, Carvers, Embroiderers, Painters, Silversmiths, and other Artificers, do presume (both upon Coaches, Coaches, and in making the Coronets for this present Coronation) to raise the Pearls of the Barons and Baroneſſes Coronets upon Pins or Spikes (whereas they ought to be flat upon the Rim or Ring of the Coronet) this is to warn all ſuch Workmen from the like Error, and to enjoin and order them to take care to make all ſuch Coronets exactly as they are allowed to be worn by the Grant from King Charles the Second, of bleſſed Memory, as they will answer the contrary at their Perils.

Sept. 22, 1727.

SUSSEX, M.

About a Fortnight after, the following Orders were alſo publiſh'd, viz.

ORDERS to be obſerved at their Majeſties Coronation.

1. THESE are to give Notice, that it is ordered, That all the Peers that do go in the Proceeding, are to meet in the Houſe of Lords, and all the Peereſſes at the Painted Chamber in West-minſter, in their Robes, and with their Coronets, by Eight o'Clock preciſely, on Wednesday Morning next; and all others appointed to go in the said Proceeding (except those who are immediately to attend near their Majesties Persons) are to meet in the Court of Requests exactly at the same Hour, in their respective Habits usual on such Occasions.

2. That no Person, whose Name is not contained in the Ceremonial, shall presume to attend, or walk in the Proceeding.

3. That a way is ordered to be made for Coaches to pass through Channel Row, cross the New and Old Palace Yards; which Coaches, as soon as discharged, are to proceed on directly to Mill-Bank, without making any Stop: And none but the Coaches of Peers, Peeressees, and others, who attend the Solemnity, are to pass that Way after Six o'Clock that Morning; nor any whatever after Nine.

4. And that another Way is hereby ordered for Coaches to pass to the Abbey up Charles-Street, and by Story's, through the Gate at the End of Tothill-Street, to the Gate at Little Dean's Yard, and from thence (after setting down their Company) to proceed through the Bowling-Alley, without stopping, to Hyde Park Corner: But no Hackney Coaches are to pass any further the last mentioned Way, than the End of Little Queen's-Street by Story's Gate; and after setting down their Fare at Angel Court, (from whence there will be a Foot Way made to the North Door of the Abbey) the said Hackney Coaches must turn up Little Queen-street, and proceed directly to Hyde Park Corner; and in the Evening the Coaches are to return the same Way: But no Coaches will be permitted to pass back any of those Ways, 'till after their Majesties Return to St. James's.

5. That after the Peers, Peereses, and others, are set down, the Servants of such Peers and Persons are to be dismissed, and immediately pass on the same Way with the Coaches to which they belong.

6. That no Peer or Peeres is to appoint any Person to wait on them in the Hall at Dinner, Attendants being otherwise provided for that Purpose.

7. And whereas his Majesty hath commanded, That Care be taken that the Church and Choir of Westminster Abbey be kept free for their Majesties Proceeding, no Person whatsoever is to be admitted within the Door of the Choir (but such as shall produce Tickets, signed and marked with my Name and Seal) till the Entrance of their Majesties Proceeding. And all Persons, who shall have such Tickets, are to come in at the Door at Little Dean's-Yard, or the North, or South-East Doors of the Abbey.

8. And further, to warn all Persons concerned, that none shall be admitted into any of the Galleries in the Abbey [without the Choir] after Seven o'Clock on Wednesday Morning next.

9. That the Military Officers keep their Posts, and not come into the Choir; that the Gentlemen Pensioners do stand at the Foot of the Steps ascending to the Theatre, and come no further; and that the Yeomen of the Guard do stand between the Gentlemen Pensioners and the Choir Door.

10. And it is also ordered, That no Person whatever who shall be present at the said Coronation [either attending the Pro-

Proceeding, or as Spectators] do appear in Mourning Habit on that Day; and the wearing Coronation Favours will be approved of.

Dated October the 7th, 1727.

SUSSEX, M.

On the Day appointed, the Solemnity of their Majesties CORONATION was accordingly performed, in the following Manner, viz.

The Clerk of the Cheque to the Yeomen of the Guard.

Note, That the Peers being Knights of the Garter, of the Thistle, and of the Bath, wore the Collars of the said Orders.

Their Majesties, upon their Entrance into the Church, were received by the Prebendaries and Choir singing an Anthem, and having seated themselves, the Recognition and Oblations were made, and after the Litany read by the Bishops of Gloucester and Brissol, and the first Part of the Communion Service, the Bishop of Oxford preached the Sermon; and then his Majesty Majesty subscribed the Declaration, and took the Coronation Oath, and was anointed by the Archbishop upon the Crown of the Head, the Breast, and Palms of his Hands, and then presented with the Spurs, and girt with the Sword, which was offered and afterwards redeemed by the Earl of Huntington, and was then invested with the Armills and with the Imperial Pall, and the Orb with the Cross was also presented, and the Ring was put upon the fourth Finger of his Majesty's Right Hand by the Archbishop of Canterbury, who then deliver'd the Scepter with the Cross, and the Rod with the Dove, and being assisted with several Bishops, put the Crown reverently upon his Majesty's Head, at which Sight all the Spectators repeated their loud Shouts, the Trumpets sounded, and upon a Signal given, the great Guns in the Park and in the Tower were fired.

All the Peers then put on their Coronets, the Bishops their Caps, the representing Dukes of Aquitain and Normandy their Hats, the Knights of the Garter, and those of the Bath, their Caps with Plumes of Feathers, and the Kings of Arms, their Coronets.

The Noise ceasing, the Archbishop proceeded with the Divine Offices, and after he had deliver'd the Bible to his Majesty, and solemnly read the Benedictions, his Majesty was pleas'd to kiss the Archbishops and Bishops, as they kneel'd before him, one after another. Then Te Deum being sung, his Majesty was lifted into his Throne, where all the Peers did their Homages, during which Time, Medals of Gold were given to the Peers and Peereffes, and Medals of Silver thrown among the People; which latter was also done in the Return of the Procession to Westminster-Hall. These Solemnities being finished, her Majesty, supported by the Bishops of London and Winchester, went to the Steps of the Altar, and being anointed with the Holy Oil on the Head and Breasts, and receiving the Ring, the Archbishop reverently set the Crown upon her Majesty's Head, whereupon the three Princeffes and the Peereffes put on their Coronets, and her Majesty having received the Scepter with the Cross, and the Ivory Rod Rod with the Dove, was conducted to her Throne.

Then their Majesties having made their second Oblations, received the Holy Communion, and the Prayers being ended, went into St. Edward's Chapel, where his Majesty was arrayed in Robes of Purple Velvet, and having received the Crown of State, and her Majesty the like Crown, the Return was made to Westminster-Hall, in the Method of the former Procession, save that the Peers who carry'd any of the Regalia, which had been left behind in St. Edward's Chapel, the Scepter with the Cross, and the Orb then in his Majesty's Hands, and the Scepter with the Cross, and the Ivory Rod then in her Majesty's Hands, went now in their Ranks, according to their Degrees of Consecrations. The three Princesses, the Peers and Peereffes, the Kings of Arms, wore their respective Coronets, the Dukes of Aquitain and Normandy, their Hats, the Bishops, their Caps, the Knights of the Garter, and those of the Bath, their Caps, with Feathers, and the Judges, their Caps.

Their Majesties placing themselves in their Chairs of State, at a Table at the upper End of the Hall, the three Princesses sat at one End of it, upon the Left Hand of her Majesty, and all the Nobility and other Persons of Quality being seated at Tables prepared for them, the first Course was serv'd up to their Majesties Table with the accustomed Ceremonies, and the Services requir'd from several Persons, according to the Tenures of their Estates and Offices, were perform'd.

Ceremony of the KING's Champion.

BEFORE the second Course was brought in, the King's Champion, who enjoys that Office as being Lord of the Manor of Scrivelsby in Lincolnshire, enter'd the Hall compleatly arm'd, in one of his Majesty's best Suits of white Armour, mounted on a goodly white Horse, richly caparison'd in manner following :

Two Trumpets, with the Champion's Arms on their Banners.

The Serjeant Trumpet, with his Mace on his Shoulder.

Two

Two Serjeants at Arms, with their Maces on their Shoulders.

The Champion's two Esquires, richly habited, one on the Right Hand, with the Champion's Lance carry'd upright; the other on the Left Hand, with his Target, and the Champion's Arms depicted thereon.

The Herald of Arms with a Paper in his Hand, containing the Words of the Challenge.

The Earl Marshal, in his Robes & Coronet, on Horseback, with the Marshal's Staff in his Hand.	The Champion on Horseback, with a Gauntlet in his Rt. Hand, his Helmet on his Head, adorned with a great Plume of Feathers, White, Blue, and Red.	The Lord High Constable in his Robes and Coronet, & Collar of the Order, on Horseback, with the Constable's Staff.

Four Pages richly apparelled, Attendants on the Champion.

The Passage to their Majesty's Table being cleared by the Knight Marshal, the Herald at Arms with a loud Voice, proclaims the Champion's Challenge at the lower End of the Hall, in the Words following :

IF any Person of what Degree soever, high or low, shall deny or gainsay, Our Sovereign Lord King GEORGE II. King of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. Son and next Heir to Our Sovereign Lord King GEORGE I. the last King deceased, to be Right Heir to the Imperial Crown of this Realm of Great Britain, or that he ought not to enjoy the same; here is his Champion, who saith, that he lyeth, and is a false Traytor, being ready in Person to combat with him; and in this Quarrel will adventure his Life against him, on what Day soever he shall be appointed.

And then the Champion throws down his Gauntlet, which having lain some small Time, the Herald takes it up, and redelivers it to the Champion.

Then

Then they advance in the same Order to the Middle of the Hall, where the said Herald makes Proclamation as before: And lastly, to the Foot of the Steps, when the said Herald, and those who precede him, going to the Top of the Steps, makes Proclamation a third Time, at the End whereof the Champion casts down his Gauntlet, which, after some Time, being taken up, and re-deliver'd to him by the Herald, he makes a low Obeisance to his Majesty: Whereupon the Cupbearer, assisted as before, brings to the King a gilt Bowl of Wine with a Cover, his Majesty drinks to the Champion, and sends him the said Bowl by the Cupbearer, accompany'd with his Assistants; which the Champion (having put on his Gauntlet) receives, and retiring a little, drinks thereof, and makes his humble Reverence to his Majesty; and being accompany'd as before, departs out of the Hall, taking the said Bowl and Cover with him as his Fee.

Immediately after which, the Officers of Arms descending from their Gallery, Garter, and the two Provincial Kings of Arms, with their Coronets on their Heads, followed lowed by the Heralds and Pursuivants, come and stand at the lower End of the Hall, and making their Obeifance to his Majesty, proceed to the Middle of the Hall, where they make a second Obeifance; and being come to the Foot of the Steps, and there making a third Obeifance, they ascend the Steps, and at the Top thereof, Garter cries Largefs thrice, and (having received his Majesty's Largefs) proclaims the King's Stile in Latin, as follows:

*Sereniffimi, Potentiiffimi, & Excellentiiffimi
Monarchæ Georgii Secundi, Dei Gratia,
Magnæ Britanniaë, Franciaë, & Hiberniaë
Regis, Fidei Defenforis.*

Upon which all the Officers of Arms making their Obeifances, Garter the second Time proclaims his Majesty's Stile in French, as followeth:

*Du Tres Haut, Tres Puiffant, & Tres
Excellent Monarque George Second, par la
Grace de Dieu, Roy de la Grande Bretagne, France, & Irelande, Defenfeur de la Foy.*

The Officers of Arms making another Reverence, Garter the third Time proclaims claims the King's Stile in English, as followeth :

Of the Most High, Most Mighty, and Most Excellent Monarch GEORGE II. by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith.

After which, they all make their Obeisance, and descending, go backwards to the Middle of the Hall, still keeping their Faces towards the King, and there crying Largefs thrice, proclaim the King's Stile in Latin, French, and English, as before.

And lastly, coming to the lower End of the Hall in the same Order, they again cry Largefs, and proclaim his Majesty's Stile in like Manner; and then repairing to their Table, sit down to Dinner.

This done, the second Course was carry'd up to their Majesties Table by the Gentlemen whose Office it properly is, with the same Solemnities as the former, &c. &c.

His Majesty was pleas'd to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Col. Multon Lambard, and George Walters, Esqrs. who represented the Dukes of Aquitain and Normandy.

Normandy. As also upon William Wynne, Esq; Standard-Bearer of the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners, and John Taylor, Esq; one of the Gentlemen of that Band.

The whole Solemnity was perform'd with the greatest Splendor and Magnificence, and without any Disorder; and what was most admir'd in the Hall were the Chandeliers, Branches, and Sconces, in which were near 2000 Wax Candles, which being lighted at once, yielded an exceeding fine Prospect.

Their Majesties left the Hall before Eight o'Clock, and return'd to St. James's, and the Day concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, Ringing of Bells, and all other publick Demonstrations of a general Joy and Satisfaction.

It is here proper to take Notice, that the Court of Claims appointed by his Majesty, sat several Times before the Coronation-Day, to regulate the several Pretensions of Persons to do Service at that Solemnity; but the Proceedings of that Court not having yet been made publick, I shall present the Reader with an Abstract of the Record of the Court of Claims at the Coronation of the late King James II. and his Queen; for as those Claims are founded on ancient Custom, they are the same at all Times, mutatis mutandis.

CLAIMS of several Persons to do Service at the CORONATION.

THE Lord Great Chamberlain of England claim'd at the said Coronation; to carry the King his Shirt and Cloaths the Morning of the Coronation, and with the Lord Chamberlain to dress the King. To have forty Yards of Crimson Velvet for a Robe, also the King's Bed and Bedding, and Furniture of his Chamber where he lay the Night before, with his Wearing Apparel, and Night Gown: Also to serve the King with Water, before and after Dinner, and to have the Basons and Towels, and Cup of Assay. Allow'd, except the Cup of Assay. He receiv'd the forty Yards of Velvet, and the rest of the Fees were compounded for 200*l.*

2. The Earl of Derby counterclaim'd the Office of Lord Great Chamberlain, with the Fees, &c. but was not allow'd.

3. The King's Champion claim'd his Office

Office as Lord of Scrivelsby Manor in Lincolnshire; to perform the said Office, and to have a Gold Cup and Cover, with the Horse on which he rides, the Saddle, Armour, and Furniture, and twenty Yards of Crimson Satten. — Allow'd, except the said twenty Yards of Satten.

His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury as his Fee, according to ancient Usage, receives the Purple Velvet Chair, Cushion, and Footstool whereon he sits at the Coronation.

The Officers of the removing Wardrobe also usually receive as their Fee, the Pall of Cloth of Gold held over the King at his Coronation.

And it has been customary for his Majesty on this Occasion, to confer the Honour of Knighthood on the Lord of Addington Manor [whose Services, see Claim 9.] and on two of the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners, presented to the King by their Captain for that Purpose.

Account of their Majesties Entertainment at Guildhall, on the Lord Mayor's Day.

AT a Court of Common Council held at Guildhall on Thursday the 6th of October, it was unanimously resolv'd, to invite their Majesties and the rest of the Royal Family to Dinner on the approaching Lord Mayor's Day; and the Lord Mayor with the two Sheriffs and the Recorder, were order'd to wait upon their Majesties accordingly, to know their Royal Pleasure. It was also resolv'd, That a Committee, consisting of four Aldermen, (viz. Humphrey Parsons, Esq; Richard Brocas, Esq; John Barber, Esq; and Sir John Williams) and eight Commoners should wait upon his Majesty, and desire his Leave to set up his Majesty's Statue in the Royal Exchange; and likewise his Majesty's Picture, together with that of the Queen, his Royal Consort, in Guildhall: Accordingly, on Sunday the 8th of October, the Lord Mayor Elect, Sheriffs, and Recorder, waited on the King and Queen with the said Invitation, which their Majesties were graciously pleased to accept; and the same Day, the Committee appointed by the Common Council to desire Leave to set up his Ma-

Majesty's Effigy on the Royal Exchange, and also for drawing and setting up their Majesties Pictures in Guildball, presented the said Request to their Majesties at St. James's, which were graciously comply'd with. The next Day, the Court of Common Council met again, and both the Lord Mayor Elect and the Committee having severally made their Reports, a Committee was appointed and order'd to take Care of the Entertainment to be provided for their Majesties on the ensuing Lord Mayor's Day, consisting of eight Aldermen, viz. Sir George Merttins, Brocas, Parsons, Child, Barber, Levet, Sir John Williams, and Alsop. And sixteen Commoners, viz. Col. Robinson, Dep. Snart, Everet, Colt, Farrington, and Brewis; Messieurs Evans, Preston, Monk, Bridgen, Fotherby, Byrch, Thomas, Tims, Potts, and Tate. On Friday the 13th, the Sheriffs waited on the Princess Royal, and her two Sisters, the Princesses Amelia and Carolina, and on his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, to invite them also to the said Feast; which their Royal Highnesses were pleas'd to accept.

On Monday the 30th of October, Sir Edward Becher, Knt. Lord Mayor Elect, accomcompany'd by the late Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went to the Waterside, from whence they proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges to Westminster; and having walk'd round the Hall, and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, where Mr. Serjeant Raby (in the Room of the Recorder) made a Speech on the Occasion, and was answer'd by the Lord Chief Baron Sir Thomas Pengelly; after which the Lord Mayor took the Oaths appointed, and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, return'd by Water to Black Fryars, and from thence to Guildball, with the usual Solemnity.

The King, Queen and Royal Family having receiv'd an humble Invitation from the City to dine at Guildball, their Majesties, the Princess Royal, and her Royal Highness the Princess Carolina, came into Cheapside, about Three in the Afternoon, attended by the Great Officers of the Court, and a numerous train of the Nobility and Gentry, in their Coaches, the Streets being lin'd from Temple-Bar by the Militia of London, and the Balconies adorn'd with Tapestry.

Tapestry. Their Majesties and the Princesses saw the Proceſſion from a Balcony near Bow Church. Then their Majesties and the Princesses being conducted by the Sheriffs to Guildball, the Lord Mayor, at the Entrance kneeled, and presented the Sword to the King, who was pleased to return it to his Lordship; and he carry'd it before his Majesty up to the Council Chamber; where Mr. Baron Thompson made the Compliments of the City in the following Speech :

May it please your Majesty,

THE Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of this City, beg Leave to offer their most humble Acknowledgment for this great Honour to the City by the Presence of your Majesty, your Royal Consort, the Princess Royal, and her Royal Highness.

Their Joy is inexpressible to behold their Sovereign condescending to accept their good Will and Affections, and, in the most engaging Manner vouchsafing here to receive their Homage and Duty.

This Day will ever be remember'd by them with the highest Satisfaction.—This happy Day, which gave Birth to their Most Gracious
King,

King, who is pleased thus to honour them, and who protects them in the Enjoyment of all their Rights and Privileges. — A Prince who takes Pleasure in promoting their Happiness; and who thinks it gives the truest Lustre to his Crown, to preserve the Religion, the Laws and Liberties of his People.

Fortunate is their present Condition, and delightful is their Prospect, while they have in View your Majesty, their Most Gracious and justly admired Queen, and the Illustrious Branches of your Royal Family, Permit, Sir, these your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, to take this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty of their unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person, and of the warmest Zeal for the Support of your Government.

The best, — the only Security of our excellent Constitution in Church and State, and of every Thing which is dear and valuable to Englishmen. — Gratitude and Interest make these the unanimous Sentiments of this your Majesty's most loyal and most dutiful City of London.

From the Council-Chamber their Majesties and the Princesses went to the Hastings tings (the Sword being carry'd before his Majesty by the Lord Mayor) where their Majesties and the Princesses din'd, and the Ladies of the Bedchamber had the Honour to dine at the same Table with them. Tables were likewise provided for the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, Privy Counsellors, the Judges, Ladies, and other Persons of Distinction. The whole Entertainment was very magnificent. The Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, being seated at their Tables, and Silence being commanded, the Common Cryer proclaimed aloud that his Majesty drank to the Health of the Lord Mayor, and Prosperity to the City of London and the Trade thereof, and that her Majesty drank confirming the same. Then Silence being again commanded, the Common Cryer proclaim'd that the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, drank Health, long Life, and a prosperous happy Reign, to our Sovereign Lord King George. Silence being again commanded, the Common Cryer proclaim'd that the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, drank to the Health, long Life, and Happiness of our

E Most

Most Gracious Queen Caroline, and the Royal Family.

After Dinner their Majesties had the Goodness and Condescension to return to the Council-Chamber, with the Princeesses, and to be present at a Ball in the Long Gallery and Rooms adjacent, 'till Eleven a Clock at Night. His Majesty was graciously pleas'd to order a Thousand Pounds to be paid into the Hands of the Sheriffs, for the Relief and Discharge of poor Prisoners for Debt. Their Majesties and the Princeesses return'd to St. James's with the same State they came. The Streets were again lin'd by the Trained Bands; the Houses all the Way were illuminated, and the People made loud Acclamations of Joy.
