

WOUNDED GERMAN SOLDIERS VISITING THE GRAVE OF HEINRICH VON KLEIST, THE GERMAN POET, AT WANNSEE, NEAR BERLIN.

(Photo by Photothek, Berlin.)

(Photos by Paul Thompson.)
A GERMAN "POLAR BEAR" QUESTIONING A YOUTHFUL SIBERIAN SHARP-SHOOTER, HIS PRISONER OF WAR.

Entrance Gate of the City of Sochaczew, Poland, in Ruins from the Cross-fire of the Russian and German Armies.

FRENCH SOLDIERS GOING TO THE FRONT WITH THE RED CROSS DOGS PRESENTED BY THE FRENCH EX-PRESIDENT, M. FELIX FAURE.

(Photo from Press Illustrating Co.)

RECRUITS TO KITCHENER'S NEW ARMY TAKE UP SPARRING AS A PART OF THE SOLDIER'S TRAINING.

(Photo by Underwood & Underwood.)