PART SIX
NEW YORK TRIBUNE

The Tribune Graphic

Section One

SUNDAY
JULY 23, 1916

THE SUMMER DEBUTANTE AT NEWPORT.

Miss Ethel M. B. Harriman, the daughter of Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, of New York, is one of the few summer debutantes. The usual custom is for debutantes to be introduced to society during the late fall or early winter Miss Harriman will make her bow to Newport's smart set during July or August.

© Underwood & Underwood.