

ST. MATTHEW ISLAND CAMP OF THE SHIPWRECKED CREW OF THE GREAT BEAR, the Arctic Exploration Ship of John Borden of Chicago, which was dashed to pieces one inky night in August on Pinnacle Rock, which rises out of Bering Sea like an iceberg to a height of 900 feet. Pinnacle Rock can be seen in the distance. (Photos from Gilliams Service.)

THE REPEATED S. O. S. CALLS FROM THIS WIRELESS STATION ERECTED ON THE HIGHEST POINT OF PINNACLE ROCK BY N. H. BOKUM, CHICAGO CLUBMAN AND AMATEUR WIRELESS EXPERT, WHO WAS ONE OF MR. BORDEN'S GUESTS, BROUGHT THE U. S. COAST GUARD CUTTER M'CUYLOCK TO THEIR RESCUE. Borden and Bokum are standing at the foot of the staff.

THE DUCHESS OF DEVONSHIRE, THE NEW "FIRST LADY" OF CANADA, AND HER YOUNGEST DAUGHTER. The Duke of Devonshire, New Governor General of Canada, and family are soon to take up their residence in Ottawa.

KING ALPHONSO XIII. OF SPAIN, with his sons, Alphonso, Jaime and Juan, viewing a polo match at Santander. (Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

PRESIDENT AND MRS. WOODROW WILSON arriving in Omaha, for the Semi-Centennial Celebration. (Photo by Bee Publishing Company.)

EQUESTRIAN STATUE OF GEN. PHILIP H. SHERIDAN UNVEILED IN FRONT OF THE CAPITOL AT ALBANY. This statue was one of the last works of the late John Quincy Adams Ward. (Photo by Albany Engraving Company.)