

"THE COQUETTE"—BY J. MCLURE HAMILTON.

Lent by Mrs. E. H. Harriman for a Special Exhibition of Mr. Hamilton's Work Now Being Held at Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh.

(Photo © Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh.)

(Photo by Central News Photo Service.)

Remarkable Photograph, By An Electrically Operated Camera, of A Shell An Instant After It Had Left a Mortar at Target Practice in Fortress Monroe, Virginia.

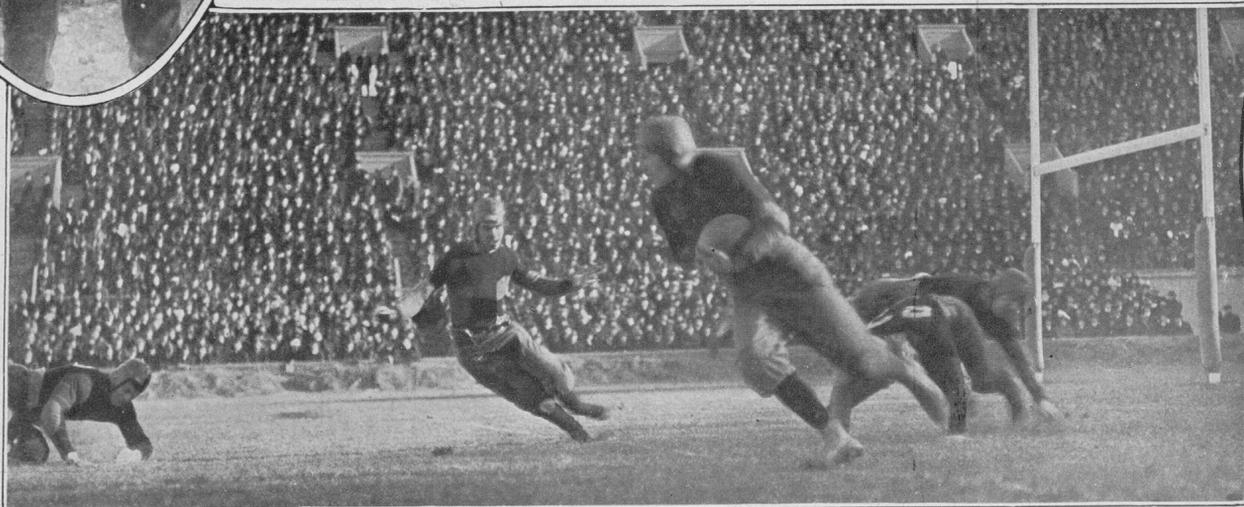

"FRITZ," A LITTLE GERMAN CAPTIVE WHICH FELL INTO THE HANDS OF THE CANADIANS IN COURCELLETTE ON THEIR CAPTURE OF THAT VILLAGE.

GROUP OF CANADIAN "SCOTTIES" HALT TO CHEER KING GEORGE V., QUEEN MARY AND PRINCESS MARY, OUT FOR A DRIVE IN LONDON.

(Photo by Central News Photo Service.)

CASEY, HARVARD FULL BACK, IN THE GAME WITH PRINCETON, STARTING ON A THIRTY-FIVE YARD RUN, WITH HIGHLEY OF PRINCETON WHIRLING IN HIS TRACKS IN AN EFFORT TO TACKLE.

(Photo by Kellar & White.)

EVANGELIST "BILLY" SUNDAY. When Harvard Scored Against Princeton On Soldiers' Field a Week Ago.

(Photo by Kellar & White.)