

CHILDREN OF THE STAGE IN A SCENE FROM THEIR CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL, "EDITH'S DREAM OF THE CHRISTMAS FAIRIES." In the Group, Left to Right, Are: Edith Cronin, Catherine Roberts, Dorothy Camden, Helen Carroll, Claremont Carroll, Naomi Stone, Jean Bailey, Margaret Crowe, Barbara Daly, Evelyn Murphy, Carroll Hopp, Ethel Smith, and Helen Schwarze.

(Photo © by American Press Ass'n.)

GENERAL PIERRE ROQUES, Former French Minister of War, and Staff, Descending the Acropolis After a Visit to the Parthenon.

(Photo from U. & U.)

ADMIRAL SANTA CLAUS OF THE UNITED STATES SUPERDREADNOUGHT NEW YORK, IN HARBOR FOR CHRISTMAS, STANDING ON THE GANGWAY TO WELCOME NEEDY CHILDREN LIVING IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD OF THE BROOKLYN NAVY YARD, TO WHOM HE LATER GAVE MANY PRESENTS.

(Photo-© by Underwood & Underwood.)

CHRISTMAS PARTY FROM NEW YORK ICE-BOATING AT SUNSET ON A STREAM AT THE YAMA-YAMA FARMS.

(Photo © International Film Service.)

COMMANDER EVA BOOTH SUPERINTENDING THE DISTRIBUTION OF HUNDREDS OF CHRISTMAS GIFTS AND DINNERS FOR THE POOR, PROVIDED BY THE SALVATION ARMY.

(Photo © by International Film Service.)

A Scene on Christmas Day in the West Forty-seventh Street Police Station, Which, in Common With Practically Every Other Police Station in the City, Became for the Day a Division Headquarters for Santa Claus, the Big Policemen Acting as His Agents in Distributing $65,000 Worth of Presents to the Children of the Poor.

(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)