

"BELA PRATT,"
A Portrait of the Sculptor by Howard E. Smith, Which Won the First Julius Hallgarten Prize at the "Spring Academy."
(Times Photo Service.)

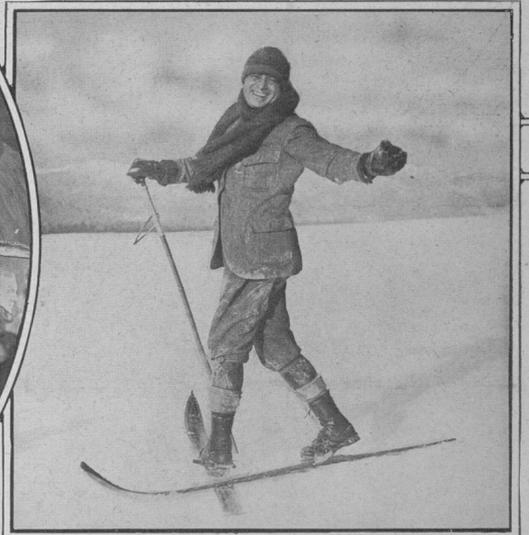

"THE CALL OF THE WEST WIND"—BY CHARLES H. DAVIS, N. A.,
To Which Was Awarded the Altman Prize of $1,000 for the Best Landscape by a Native American Artist Shown at the Current Spring Exhibition of the National Academy of Design.
(Photo by Peter A. Juley.)

JANE COWL
IN "LILAC TIME," AT THE
REPUBLIC THEATRE.
From a New Photograph.
(Photo by White.)

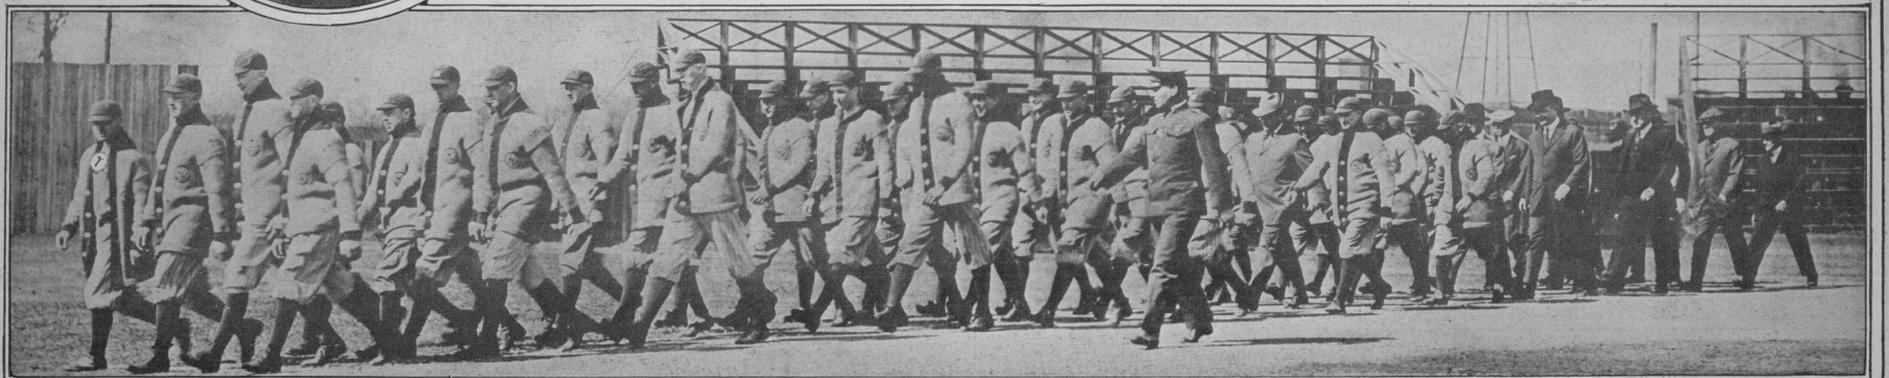

MARY BOLAND
AND
SYDNEY SHIELDS
IN "THE
CASE OF LADY
COMBER," COMING TO THE LYCEUM
THEATRE.
(Photo © by Charles Frohman.)

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS,
Actor and Screen "Star," Skiing on Lake P acid.

ALTISCOPE RIFLE, WHICH INCLUDES PERISCOPE AND ADJUSTABLE BARREL FOR ACCURATE FIRING IN TRENCH WARFARE WITH MINIMUM EXPOSURE TO THE SOLDIER.
It Was Invented by S. A. Guiberson and L. L. Richards of Los Angeles and Is Now Being Tested by the War Department at Washington.
(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

AMERICAN LEAGUE "YANKEES" RECEIVING MILITARY AS WELL AS BASEBALL INSTRUCTION AT MACON, GA. THEY ARE HERE SHOWN DRILLING UNDER SERGEANT S. P. GIBSON, U. S. A.