

ROOKIES OF THE OFFICERS' RESERVE CORPS FROM NEW YORK CITY TAKING THEIR SETTING UP EXERCISES AT THE PLATTSBURG CAMP. (Times Photo Service.)

COL. PAUL A. WOLF,

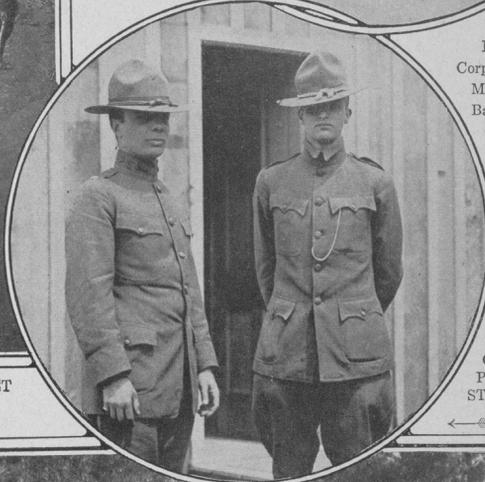

In Command of the Entire Officers' Reserve Corps of More Than 5,000 Men, and His Aid, Capt. Baer, on the Steps of the Administration Building at Plattsburg. (Times Photo Service.)

PRIVATE MILLAR OF TROOP I, U. S. CAVALRY, SOUNDING THE REVEILLE AT PLATTSBURG ON A HUGE MEGAPHONE BUGLE. (© American Press Assn.)

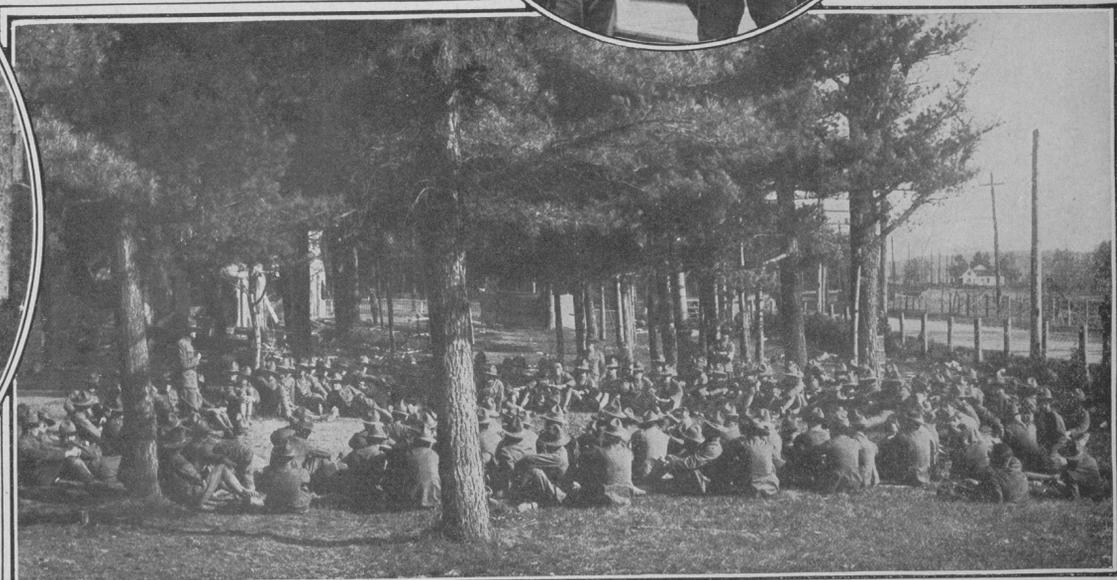

STUDENT OFFICER SIGNALING DOWN A COMPANY STREET OPENING TOWARD LAKE CHAMPLAIN. (Times Photo Service.)

MAJOR THEODORE ROOSEVELT, JR., AND LIEUT. ARCHIBALD ROOSEVELT, SONS OF COL. ROOSEVELT, AT PLATTSBURG AS INSTRUCTION OFFICERS. (Times Photo Service.)

COMPANY N, NEW YORK CITY STUDENT OFFICERS, HIKING DOWN A LANE LEADING INTO THE TOWN OF PLATTSBURG. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

MEN OF THE FOURTH NEW ENGLAND COMPANY, STUDENT OFFICERS AT PLATTSBURG, ATTENDING A LECTURE UNDER THE PINES ALONG LAKE CHAMPLAIN. (International Film Service.)