

NEW YORK'S "HELL FIGHTERS," MEN OF THE 369TH INFANTRY, Formerly the Old 15th New York, Composed of Colored Men of New York City Just Arrived from France, Marching Up Fifth Avenue Past the Governor's Reviewing Stand on Last Monday, Being the First American War Veterans to Parade in New York. (© Paul Thompson.)

MAJOR DAVID ESPERENZ AND MAJOR LORRILARD SPENCER, Both Wounded While Leading Their Battalions of the 369th Infantry, Rode in the Parade, Driven by Motor Corps Girls. (© Western Newspaper Union.)

COLONEL WILLIAM HAYWOOD, Commander of the 369th, and Lieut. Col. W. A. Pickering, Leading Their Men Up Fifth Avenue. (© Paul Thompson.)

GOVERNOR SMITH, FORMER GOVERNOR WHITMAN, AND GENERAL BARRY, COMMANDER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE EAST, REVIEWING NEW YORK'S VALIANT COLORED TROOPS. (Times Photo Service.)

(Times Photo Service.)

THE 369TH'S FAMOUS "JAZZ" BAND, Led by Lieutenant "Jim" Europe, Which "Jazzed" All Over France and Belgium to Cheer Up Wounded American Soldiers, at the Head of the Veteran Fighters on Their Triumphal Procession Up Fifth Avenue.

ENGLISH BRIDES OF AMERICAN SAILORS, ON DUTY IN ENGLISH WATERS, ARRIVING ON THE AMERICAN TRANSPORT LOUISVILLE FOR THEIR HOMES OF ADOPTION. They Are, Left to Right: Mrs. Charles E. Nemetz, San Francisco; Mrs. Ella Meek, Plainfield, N. J.; Mrs. Fred Jenkins, Winfield, Kans., and Mrs. Gorham Brown, Harrisburg, Texas. (© International Film Service.)

PRIVATE ERNEST FERREIRA AND HIS BRIDE, Formerly Miss Pauline Donahue, a Red Cross Volunteer, Proceeding to the Altar Under an Arch of Crutches Raised by the Bridgroom's Convalescent Comrades, the Wedding Being the First War Romance of Pershing House in G. amercy Park. (Paul Thompson.)