The World's Two Greatest Writing Aids

EVER since the cave-man scratched his first rude mark on a rock, men have sought perfection in the writing tools that mean so much in helping them make their mark in life.

Today's finality in writing efficiency and comfort is found in a wonderful pencil, EVERSHARP, and a just-as-wonderful pen, TEMPOINT. Eversharp users are already counted by the million, and Tempoint promises to run it a close second.

There are many sound reasons for this leadership—each a worth-while consideration to every man, woman and child that writes. In these two famous aids writing attains a new standard of ease, comfort, efficiency and economy—and the writing world has been quick to see it.

EVERSHARP is the pencil that is always sharp—never sharpened. Under its attractive jacket is enough lead for a quarter million words—enough to write a big book at one writing—ten thousand words one cent—and a point for every word.

Twenty-five cents renews the lead supply at long intervals. With Eversharp you are never without lead, and never without a point for everything you write.

And Eversharp is a fine looker as well as a fine worker. The outer jeweler artisanship fully matches the inner mechanical craftsmanship. There's an out-of-sight eraser, too, and a built-in pocket clip that keeps Eversharp a bosom companion for life.

TEMPOINT is the fountain pen with the tempered point—a hand-hammered gold point immune against the attack of harmful ink acid and the strain of hard, continuous writing. There are nine other Tempoint features, including the wonderful comb feed by which just enough ink is fed to the paper.

More than this, there is the very Tempoint that writes like you. By means of the famous Tempoint Handwriting Chart, any Tempoint dealer will find instantly the very Tempoint for your hand and temperament. Absolute certainty the first time. No more rule-of-thumb method of pen selection.

Select your fountain pen this certain Tempoint Chart way. Then use the Tempoint for ten days. If it isn't O. K. in every particular the dealer has our authority to refund your money.

Eversharp Pencils and Tempoint Pens are made in various lengths—for pocket, chain, or lady's bag. The pens are made in both Screw-Joint and Self-Filling styles. Eversharp prices are $1 and up. Tempoint prices are $2.50 and up. Sold by dealers everywhere. For utmost pen and pencil writing comfort buy your Eversharp and Tempoint now.
