

MAX MARSTON,
of the American Team, Driving from the Fourth Tee in the Americans'
Triumphant International Golf Match Against the Canadians on the Ancaster
Links at Hamilton, Ontario.

"BOBBY" JONES,
of the Americans,
Who Tied with Max
Marston and "Chick" Evans for the Second Place in the International Tournament with the Canadians, Getting Out of the Rough on His Way to the Second Hole.
(Photos Edwin Levick.)

CORNELIUS VANDERBILT, JR., at the Helm of the Comet, His Winning Craft in the Larchmont Yacht Club Races.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

THE COMET, OWNED AND SAILED BY CORNELIUS VANDERBILT, JR.,

Winning in the Handicap
Class in the Larchmont
Regatta, Resumed
This Year, After Lapsing
Two Seasons
on Account of the War.
(Times Wide
World Photos.)

MISS LESLIE BUNYAN,
Winner of the 100-Yard Swimming Handicap. in the Metropolitan Association Championship Races
at Manhattan Beach.
Time: 17 Seconds.
(International Film Services.)

THE LENA, OGDEN REID'S THIRTY-FOOTER, Leading the Contesting Fleet Past the Finish Line, 2 Minutes 35 Seconds Ahead of D. R. Richardson's Mizpah. Time for the Course of 9 1/4 Miles: 1:49:35.
(Times Wide World Photos.)

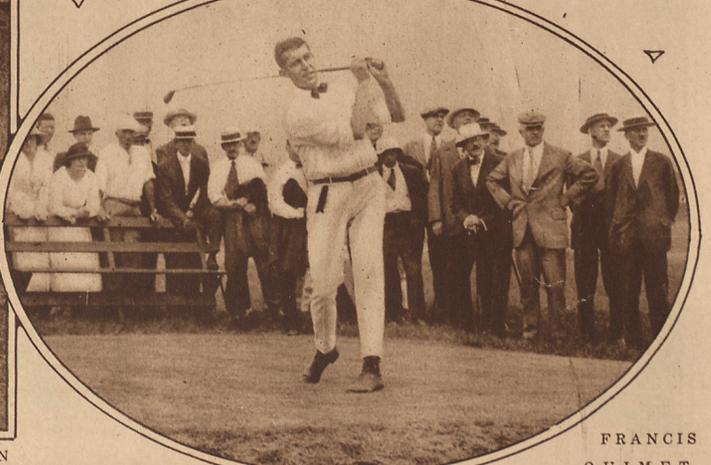

AMERICAN GOLF CHAMPIONS WHO DEFEATED CANADA'S BEST ON THE ANCASTER LINKS.
In the Panel, Left to Right, Are: J. G. Anderson, W. C. Fownes, Jr., Max Marston, Francis Quimet, R. A. Gardner, Oswald Kirkby, E. M. Byers, J. D. Travers, "Bobby" Jones and "Chick" Evans.

JEROME TRAVERS OF THE AMERICAN TEAM, AND W. J. THOMPSON OF THE CANADIANS, Descending from the Third Tee on the Ancaster Links, the Latter Finally Defeating the Crack American Golfer, Who Appeared to be Off His Game
Throughout the Day.

A GREEK INTERPRE-TATION:
YOUNG GIRLS OF THE HELEN MOLLER
SCHOOL Dancing at the Brookside
Open-Air
Theatre,
Mt. Kisco,
N. Y., the Feet of Six Dancers
Being Clear
of the Sward at the Instant the Photograph
Was Taken.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

FRANCIS QUIMET,
in the International Match with the Canadians, Driving from the Third Tee.