Broadway At 77th St.

Surface cars at door.

Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the shopping and theatrical districts.

The little things we do count so much. To do them well is to do them naturally—spontaneously. It is difficult to do things in a pleasant manner unless it is in one's disposition to do them.

Hotel workers, in order to give good service and make guests contented, must be agreeable by nature. They cannot force themselves to be agreeable without showing that it is forced.

We workers in the HOTEL BELLECLAIRE have a natural bent for the duties we are called upon to perform, which accounts for the proverbial good feeling which exists between the guests and ourselves.

It is never a trouble to serve our guests.
