

OUTDOOR DANCES OF THE GIRLS OF FRANKLIN SCHOOL, EAST ORANGE, N. J.—The Dance of the Triad—left to right, Miriam Stoll, Virginia Molina, Margaret French, Eleanor Wade, Ruth Latimer, Katherine Quackenbush, Mildred Wolf, Katherine Tate, Mary Brainard, Esther Dailey, Ruth Tompkins and Eleanor Christopherson.

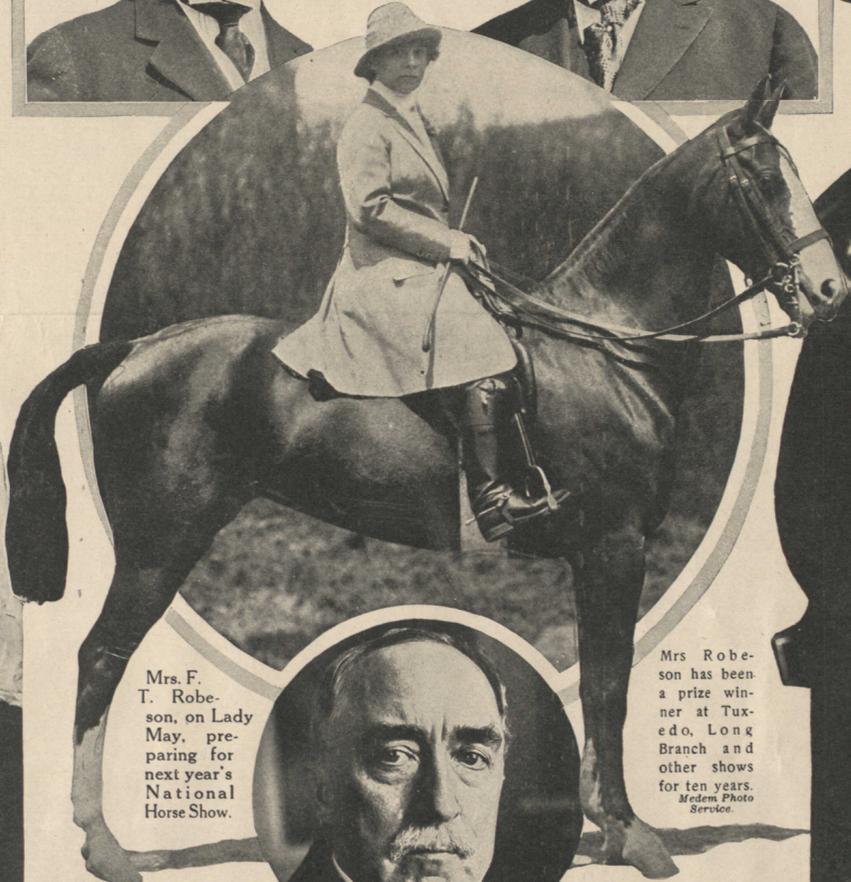

Mrs. Alice Mackay Kelly, field secretary of the National Patriotic Relief Committee, formed to aid the families of New York's national guardsmen on the U. S.-Mexico border.

THE PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE IN POLITICS—Ex-President Taft and Charles E. Hughes, who may be our next President, when they met at Bridgehampton, L. I., at the latter's home. Mr. Taft will take the stump for Mr. Hughes.

Photo by Morris Studio.

Mrs. F. T. Robeson, on Lady May, preparing for next year's National Horse Show.

Mrs. Robeson has been a prize winner at Tuxedo, Long Branch and other shows for ten years.

William R. Willcox, chosen by Charles E. Hughes as his campaign manager. As such Mr. Willcox will be chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Miss Maud Wetmore, chairman of the National Patriotic Relief Committee, which will help the families of New York's absent militiamen.

"Moment Musicale," danced by the girls of Franklin School, East Orange, N. J. Left to right, Virginia Molina, Margaret French, Eleanor Wade, Katherine Tate, Eleanor Christopherson, Esther Dailey, Mary Brainard, Katherine Quackenbush, Mildred Wolf and Ruth Latimer.