A part of Verdun, showing the Cathedral, along the Meuse River, prior to the beginning of the German attack on the Verdun fortifications last February.

These are the men whose "come back" is astounding the world. A few months ago Russia's armies were counted as negligible; the Czar was reported ready for peace. Today soldiers of the type shown in this photograph are driving Austria and Germany out of Galicia and are menacing Lemberg.

The British soldier in Mesopotamia is a salvager of humanity. When he isn't battling with the tribal allies of the Turk he is rescuing Arab families from flooded palm groves.
