

HOTELS. HOTEL MAJESTIC
 Fronting Central Park at Its West 72nd St. Gateway

SPEND the winter months in a luxurious suite in this magnificent hotel. Get away from the cares of housekeeping.

Answer the living problem by residing in this refined environment.

Since leasing this property, a year and a half ago, Mr. Copeland Townsend has established a highly desirable patronage, and the hotel is enjoying the greatest prosperity in its history.

Get the habit of a bracing walk around the lakes and reservoir in the park before breakfast.

The Hurricane Deck on the roof (open until cool weather begins) is the most delightful place to dine and dance away a hot summer evening. The famous Hawaiian Band, lately of "Stop! Look! Listen!"

Ask Purser for passport. Dancing under the direction of Evelyn Hubbell of Castle House.

Write for famous Empire Tours Book. Free on application.

HOTELS. COLONIA HOTEL
 UPTOWN HOTEL
 Columbus Ave. 51st St.

Two hotels which possess every requirement of the person with inclinations toward modern conveniences and comfortable life.

Each hotel aims at supremacy in service.

Each hotel presents accommodations and furniture the equal of which is found only in the homes of finest and most exclusive character.

Each hotel has a restaurant in connection which offers the finest the market affords, prepared by masters in the art of cooking.

The rates are exceedingly reasonable and monthly and yearly concessions are made.

One is convenient to the downtown district—one is located in the residential district. Each is in a class by itself.

Investigate or write for particulars.

HOTELS. HOTEL BELLECLAIRE
 NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St.
 Surface Cars at Door
 Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

The watchword of the BELLECLAIRE is PREPAREDNESS—keeping everything up to the minute, always ready to give guests the best service.

No matter how much praise we receive from guests for giving them fine rooms, good food, and an all-around satisfactory service, nevertheless, it is our desire TO DO MORE FOR THEM.

Consequently we prepare to do better by them than they expect or demand—i. e., the rooms are kept in the pink of condition all of the time, and money is liberally expended for this purpose.

In the kitchen, methods and equipment are improved constantly, for, after all is said and done, it is THERE the foundation of a good hotel is built—particularly a real home hotel as the BELLECLAIRE is.

There are some suites yet to be rented for the season or by the year. The regular rate prevails for suites rented by the week or for six months and only a slight discount is allowed for a year's lease. This custom prevails at the BELLECLAIRE because of the conviction that all guests are entitled to receive equal privileges at equal prices.

Favoritism in granting leases, making large reductions in some instances and forcing higher prices in other instances—in other words, running a lease bargain counter—is not a part of the BELLECLAIRE system.

The BELLECLAIRE plan is to fix prices on an equitable, just basis, all along the line, so that the yearly returns, by keeping the Hotel running to capacity, will give us a reasonable net profit.

If you want to live in a hotel where care is taken as to who shall be its guests—where prices are uniform—then come and find out for yourself just how fairly this business is operated and how complete is its service.

ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.

HOTELS. Hotel Ansonia

Broadway, 73d to 74th Street, Overlooking the Hudson River

The HOTEL ANSONIA is 17 stories high, is open on all four sides and every room is an outside room. We have a few medium and large size housekeeping apartments suitable for families or for parties of business men wishing to live together, which will be rented by the year or for the season unfurnished or fully furnished, with or without full hotel service, including electric light and artificial refrigeration, thus enabling patrons to have their meals served from the Hotel in their own private dining-rooms with great comfort.

We also have a limited number of non-housekeeping apartments of two and three rooms with private bath, which will be rented on yearly lease or for the season, either unfurnished or fully furnished, with full hotel service.

Our rentals are moderate and our service is of the highest order.

Our cuisine is dainty, the prices reasonable, and we make a specialty of serving Club breakfasts or breakfasts a la carte in the apartments without extra charge for service.

A complete Turkish Bath and Hydro-Therapy Establishment is now in operation, including a well equipped Gymnasium and a very large Swimming Pool, the water in which is purified by the Ultra Violet Rays and constantly being changed. The Hotel is situated two blocks from Riverside Drive and Central Park, and the Subway Express Station and all surface car lines and the Riverside buses are at our door.
