NEW YORK TRIBUNE
PART SEVEN

Tribune Graphic

SUNDAY JANUARY 20,
1918

While the village of Masnieres was being shelled one of the British official photographers with his car helped an old blind woman and a little girl to a region of safety. The blind woman is being led down the steps of her home, from which the household linen and furniture had been previously thrown into the streets by the Germans.

British Official, Underwood & Underwood

Indo-Chinese laborers in Macedonia building strong trenches in the district of the Vardar River. These laborers were brought out by France last spring, and it is reported that there are now more than 300,000 of them distributed on the French fronts.

Edmond Ratisbonne.

"Back to the Land" has a new significance in liberated parts of France. With indomnitable spirit, this old peasant is digging up barbed wire entanglements for a new sowing. International Film.