

American troops act as a guard of honor for French heroes being decorated for bravery under fire. International Film

General Pershing, accompanied by a British general, arriving at the office of Foreign Affairs in Paris for a conference. International Film

WITH OUR FORCES IN FRANCE

American sentries patrolling the streets of a French village. International Film

American officers, cited by the French government, receiving their citations from the French commander of the sector in which the American troops are training. International Film

A fuel ship from New York stuck in Oyster Bay, and the coalman had to drive out to unload the coal. Inter Film

An oyster dredge at work, on Long Island Sound near Oyster Bay. Strips were cut in the ice, and nets were dropped into the opening. International Film

A sportsman motored out onto the ice of the Hudson, just above Tarrytown, and fished from his car after carefully preparing a hole in the ice. Central News

The amount of clothing necessary to make a U. S. Navy lookout's life endurable in January. Central News