

“Hi there—
Come out of that!”

Little did they dream—the small boy running away from home and the deckhand who found him hiding under the boat—little did they dream that for this small boy this was the beginning of the most dazzling career that has ever befallen the lot of any American. That little Mississippi boy in his cheap little clothes was to stand with the great of the world—was to be the companion of kings—was to reign forever a kindly spirit in the hearts of the people of all the world. For that boy was our own incomparable, supreme—superb—yet so sublimely simple—so much one of us—our own—that with our admiration and our pride is a love greater than words can tell.

In the dazzle of the coming world supremacy we need Mark Twain to keep our hearts clean and our souls modest. He is the rich outpouring of our American spirit—the splendid glory of that American humor that to the wise is a symbol of our great easy going care—calm—conquering.

The joy of eternal youth is in Mark Twain—for he never grew up—not in all his seventy-four years. The feeling of eternal truth was in Mark Twain, for his was a wisdom we are just beginning fully to know.

Low Price Sale Must Stop

Mark Twain wanted every one in America to own a set of his books. So one of the last things he asked was that we make a set at so low a price that every one might own one. He said, "Don't make fine editions. Don't make editions to sell for $200 and $300 and $1,000. Make good books, books good to look at and easy to read, and make their price low." So we have made this set. And up to now we have been able to sell it at this low price.

Rising costs make it impossible to continue the sale of Mark Twain at a low price. New editions will cost very much more than this Author's National Edition. Now the price must go up. You must act at once. You must sign and mail the coupon now. If you want a set at a popular price, do not delay. This edition will soon be withdrawn, and then you will pay considerably more for your Mark Twain.

The last of the edition is in sight. There will never again be a set of Mark Twain at the present price.

Remember it is because Mark Twain sacrificed some of his royalties that you can have a set at this price at all. Take advantage of that kindness that was so characteristic of him.
