

A sentimental ceremony on the American front. Descendants of Marechal Rochambeau affectionately present two flags to one of our regiments.

French Pictorial Service.

These Sammies have just indulged in the luxury of a bath in the Lorraine River, and are now feeling quite happy.

Kadel & Herbert

NEW YORK EMBRACES LA BELLE FRANCE ON BASTILLE DAY

Two views of the celebration, at Joan of Arc's Monument, on Riverside Drive.

American Photo Service

It is difficult to imagine that this tranquil scene is in close proximity to the firing line. But it is.

© Western News Union, British Official.