Nature's "First Aid" for Pain

There is a new and better way to relieve pain—yet the principle is as old as Nature. You know the soothing and healing effect of a sun bath. The THERMOLITE reproduces the action of sunlight by a scientific arrangement of a special electric lamp in a reflector so designed that the radiant light and heat rays penetrate the tissues. This relieves Pain by removing congestion and increasing the circulation of the blood in the affected parts.

Thermo-lite Heat and Light Infuser

"SAFE as SUNLIGHT"
Used in all Gov't Hospitals and Campments.

This simple, safe and modern method is far more efficient, convenient and quicker than any superficial application of heat, such as hot water, poultices, etc., for the treatment of muscular soreness, backache, stiff neck, neuralgia, sprains, bruises and the numerous little ailments so common in every home. THERMOLITE is always ready—simply attach it to any electric light socket. Costs only two cents an hour to operate.

No magic—no mystery—no drugs—just plain common sense. Actions speak plainer than words—won't you give THERMOLITE an opportunity to demonstrate its usefulness in your home? It will probably help you; it certainly won't harm you—and if you don't want to keep THERMOLITE your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Write us for details or send $2.00 on the above basis for THERMOLITE, complete. Sold by surgical and electrical supply dealers everywhere.
