Upon the decisions of the men gathered around this historic table rests the fate of nations. First photograph in this country of the main peace conference in session in the famous clock room of the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs. 1—President Woodrow Wilson. 2—Premier Georges Clemenceau. 3—Premier David Lloyd George. 4—Arthur Balfour. 5—Andrew Bonar Law. 6—Henry White. 7—General Tasker H. Bliss. 8—Secretary of State Lansing.

Underwood & Underwood.

Smiling Captain "Very Good Eddie" Rickenbacker, the American Ace of Aces, just back after 20 months' service, with 28 German 'planes to his credit, and wearing the D. S. C. with 9 citations, the Legion of Honor and Croix de Guerre with 3 palms. Paul Thompson.

Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, with Mrs. Roosevelt and General Parker, at Romagne, France. "Teddy jr." has been awarded the Croix de Guerre and has twice been recommended for the American D. S. C. Press Illustrating.

"The Judgment of Paris" was duplicated the other night at the Chu Chin Chow Ball, and Miss Edith Hyde was awarded the golden apple for being the most beautiful woman present. J. de Strzlecki.