Graphic Section
Part Five

New York Tribune

Graphic Section
May 18, 1919

Loot

By Captain Harvey Dunn

Captain Dunn, a prominent illustrator, received a commission and went to France as a government's official war artist. He has pictured here a Boche in the act of applying the first principle of Kultur: "Kill, steal, defile." This painting is reproduced exclusively in The Tribune Colorgraphic through the courtesy of the War Department.