

Statesmen and Diplomats of the Warring Powers

Grouped around this council board are the allied statesmen intrusted with the working out of the destinies of their respective countries. Each nation has sent her most astute diplomats and brilliant military men to represent her at this meeting.

Starting at the extreme left and moving to the right around the table are Premier Asquith of England, Lord Bertie, Sir Edward Grey, David Lloyd George, one of the secretaries, Lord

Kitchener and military aid, Sir William Robertson, Italian Premier Salandra, Ambassador Tittoni, Baron Sonnino, General Cadorna, an Italian secretary, Mr Matsui, General Chagas, M. Isvelsky, General Gillinski, Premier Pashitch, General Vesnitch, General Yovanovitch, General Rochitch, General de Castelnau, General Joffre, Admiral Lacaze, Premier Briand, General Roques (standing), and General Bourgeois.

THE GATHERING OF PLENIPOTENTIARIES OF RUSSIA AND THE CENTRAL POWERS AT BREST-LITOVSK, WHERE GERMAN DIPLOMACY AND FORCE FRAMED THE INIQUITOUS TREATY THAT ROBBED RUSSIA OF HER FAIREST PROVINCES AND MADE HER THE VASSAL OF GERMANY.