

We yesterday published the following interesting letter of the Hon. J. P. De...
THOMAS FRANKLIN, President of the Chamber of Commerce at Philadelphia, April 22, 1899.

Sir: The Proclamation of the President of the United States, prohibiting the export of cotton, is a...
I am with great respect,

Yours truly, THOMAS FRANKLIN, President of the Chamber of Commerce at Philadelphia, April 22, 1899.

Your letter of the 22nd inst. I have received and I have the honor of stating to you that in pursuance of the...
I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant, J. P. De...

Thoughts on our present situation—
"Quarantine"—But valuable as the effects of the embargo have been on the present occasion, its future influence will be infinitely more important.

Had it failed of success on this occasion, we should have been compelled hereafter in our commercial course to have had recourse to war, a...
I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant, J. P. De...

It is well known that the...
I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant, J. P. De...

glorious day ever adorned the British name. A more magnificent...
The result was that the British...
The result was that the British...

It is well known that the...
The result was that the British...
The result was that the British...

AMERICA, MARCH 6.

Mr. WYMAN has been the...
The result was that the British...
The result was that the British...

strategy was to fill Madrid a...
The result was that the British...
The result was that the British...

It is well known that the...
The result was that the British...
The result was that the British...

BRITISH NOTES ON SPAIN, Jan. 25.

Attention is directed to the...
The result was that the British...
The result was that the British...

It is well known that the...
The result was that the British...
The result was that the British...

The day, with which it is...
The result was that the British...
The result was that the British...

It is well known that the...
The result was that the British...
The result was that the British...

BRITISH NOTES ON SPAIN, Jan. 25.

Attention is directed to the...
The result was that the British...
The result was that the British...

It is well known that the...
The result was that the British...
The result was that the British...