

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS EDISON AND THE EMPLOYEES OF THE EDISON LABORATORIES ASSEMBLED IN OLYMPIC PARK FOR THEIR FOURTH ANNUAL FIELD DAY, IN THE TRACK EVENTS OF WHICH MANY OF THE GIRL EMPLOYEES TOOK PROMINENT PART. (Photos by Pictorial News Co.)

MRS. JAMES M. THOMSON, FORMERLY MISS GENEVIEVE CLARK. DAUGHTER OF SPEAKER CHAMP CLARK, IN HER WEDDING GOWN. (Photo © by International News Service.)

"CANTERBURY BELLS," First Prize Winner at the Newport Flower Show, Mrs. Henry Mortimer Brooks Exhibitor.

FRENCH RAPID FIRE GUNS IN ACTION FROM BEHIND LOW EARTHWORKS. (Photo from Medem Photo Service.)

SCENE FROM THE ELABORATE HISTORICAL PAGEANT MARKING THE ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF ALLEGHANY COLLEGE, MEADVILLE, PENN., AND THE GIFT OF $50,000 FROM ANDREW CARNEGIE FOR A NEW HALL OF CHEMISTRY. Starting With the Arrival of Col. George Washington and His Guide Gist at Meadville, the Pageant Presented the History of That Section of Pennsylvania from Colonial Times Down to the Present, with National Personages Represented by Professors or Students of the College.