

CROWN PRINCE ALEXANDER OF SERBIA AND PRINCE ALBERT, SECOND SON OF KING GEORGE V., CHEERED BY LONDON CROWDS ON PRINCE ALEXANDER'S RECENT VISIT TO ENGLAND.
From a British Official Photograph.

BRITISH SOLDIER, AT HOME FOR EASTER, Making Toy Coal Scuttles for His Little Girl from Empty Shells of the French "75" Guns.

(Photo © by International Film Service.)

E. H. SOTHERN AND HIS WIFE, JULIA MARLOWE, ON THE STEPS OF THE TORONTO CITY HALL JUST AFTER BOTH HAD ADDRESSED A RECRUITING MEETING FOR THE 198TH BATTALION, C. E. F., KNOWN AS THE "BUFFS."
(Photo from British & Colonial Press, Ltd.)

LIEUT. THEODORE MARBURG, JR., SON OF THEODORE MARBURG Of Baltimore, and His Bride, Formerly Baroness Gesselle de Vavario, Arrive on their Honey moon. Lieut. Marburg, a Student at Oxford, Volunteered in the British Flying Corps, and Was So Badly Injured by an Accident to His Machine at the Front That His Left Leg Had to be Amputated.

BOY SCOUTS HONOR A SPANISH EDITOR. They Came Nearly Two Hundred Miles to Madrid from Saragossa to Pay Tribute to Senor D. Mariano Cavia, Editor of "El Imparcial," on His Election to Membership in the Spanish Academy.
(Photos from Underwood & Underwood.)