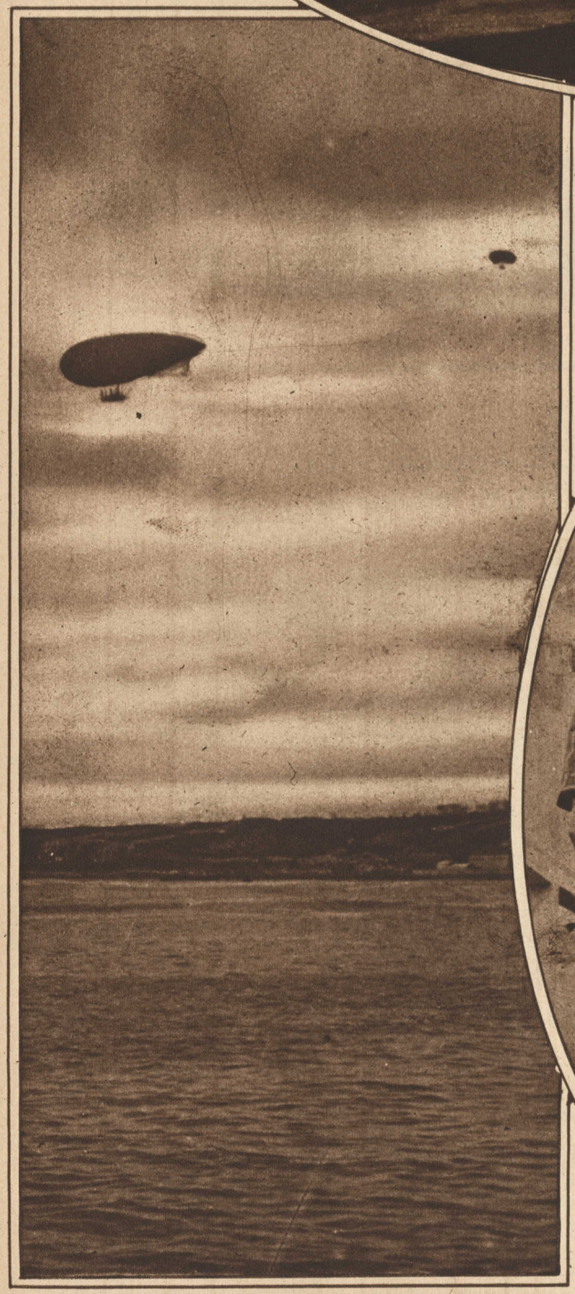
HIS EMINENCE, CARDINAL FRANCIS BOURNE, ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER, ADDRESSING, FROM AN ARMY TRANSPORT WAGON, A DUBLIN BRIGADE OF IRISH FUSILIERS ON THE BRITISH FRONT IN FRANCE.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH SHOWING THE GUARD KEPT OVER ENGLISH WATERS AGAINST GERMAN SUBMARINES, A BRITISH DIRIGIBLE, AN AMERICAN SUBMARINE CHASER, AND AN AMERICAN PLEASURE YACHT, NOW WELL ARMED AND MANNED, ALL ACTING AS CONVOY TO AN AMERICAN SHIP.

ENGLISH GIRL FARMERS IN THE LONDON LORD MAYOR'S ANNUAL SHOW AND PARADE.

(Western Newspaper Union.)



ALLIED DIRIGIBLE, CONTAINING FIVE MILITARY OBSERVERS, SCOUTING EASTERN ATLANTIC COASTAL WATERS FOR GERMAN SUBMARINES.
A captive balloon on observation duty against submarines can also be seen above the harbor in the distance.

CAPT. ANGUS BUCHANAN,
Recently Blinded in Battle, Assisted from the Platform at Bristol, England, After Having Received the Victoria Cross and the Military Cross from His King.
(Western Newspaper Union.)

CANADIAN GUN CREW ON THE WEST FRONT IN FRANCE IN ACTION, HAVING FIRST POSTED A WARNING AGAINST THE LOW-PITCHED LINTEL OF THEIR GUN SHELTER.
(Western Newspaper Union.)

BRIG. GEN. GEORGE P. SCRIVEN, U. S. A.,
Who Represents the U. S. Department of War in a Study of the Situation on the Italian Front, Where a Few Days Ago He Dined with King Victor Emmanuel III.
(Press Illustrating Service.)

BRITISH RED CROSS SURGEON DRESSING THE ARM OF ONE OF THE GERMAN PRISONERS JUST BROUGHT IN. TWO OTHER GERMANS ARE LOOKING ON, BUT IT IS NOT SO EASY TO IMAGINE WHAT IS PASSING THROUGH THE MIND OF THE YOUTHFUL PRISONER, WITH HEAD BOWED, STANDING BEHIND THEM.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)