

A JENNY MODEL SEEN IN THE PARIS BOIS, Consisting of Hat with Bunny's Ears in Velvet, and a Coat and Skirt Silhouetted in Seal.
(Photos International Film Service.)

A PAQUIN MODEL SHOWING THE NEW PARIS PETTICOAT Trimmed with Bands of Fur, Narrowing Toward the Ankles, the Whole Front of the Skirt Having Been Cut Away to Show It.

A NEW MILITARY SUIT, with Hat of the British Royal Flying Corps Type, Coat and Cape Cut on Military Uniform Lines, and Tight Fitting Skirt Designed to Resemble Trousers, Appears on Fifth Avenue.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

Wounded Under an Intense Fire in the Battle of Flanders, Passing Under an Arch of Swords Held by French Officers to Whom was Awarded the Cross for Gallantry in the Same Battle.

MISS GEORGIE FYFE, An American Girl, After Having Received the French War Cross, Awarded for the Rescue by Her of French

THE ENTIRE MAN POWER OF AN AUSTRALIAN BATTERY IS REQUIRED TO DRAG THIS 18-POUNDER THROUGH THE STICKY FLANDERS MUD.
(Western Newspaper Union.)

FRENCH SOLDIERS IN FORCE DRAGGING INTO POSITION ONE OF THEIR HEAVY FIELD PIECES, MILITARY CRITICS ATTRIBUTING THE FRENCH VICTORY IN THE BATTLE OF CHEMIN DES DAMES TO THE RAPIDITY WITH WHICH GUNS OF THIS AND EVEN LARGER CALIBRE WERE BROUGHT INTO ACTION.
(International Film Service.)

COLONEL EDWARD M. HOUSE, CONFIDENTIAL FRIEND AND ADVISER OF PRESIDENT WILSON, WITH MRS. HOUSE, THEIR SON-IN-LAW, AND THEIR ONLY CHILD, MR. AND MRS. GORDON AUCHINCLOSS. From a Recent Photograph Taken in Colonel House's Home.
(Kikuchi Studio.)

FRENCH SOLDIERS CONVEYING SUPPLIES TO THE FAMOUS FORT DOUAMONT, BEFORE VERDUN, OVER A POCKET-EDITION RAILROAD.
(International Film Service.)

ITALIAN SOLDIERS, AFTER HEAVY FIGHTING, RESTING BEHIND BREASTWORKS ON THE PIAVE LINE.
(Western Newspaper Union.)