

To Mr. Hoover,
With my feelings of deep gratitude for the eminent services he rendered to the Belgian people.

Albert

BRITISH TANKS PASS-ING THROUGH A PALM
GROVE IN PALESTINE, EXCITING
THE KEEN INTEREST OF THE YOUTHFUL NATIVES.
(Central News Photo Service.)

GEN.
JOSEPH MANGIN,
Who Led the French
to Victory in the Battles Before Soissons, Studying Landscape Maps at His Headquarters Desk.
From a New Photograph Taken on the Present Battlefield.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

BRITISH SOLDIER IN MESOPOTAMIA ABOUT TO FIRE A TRENCH GRENADE.

A LONDON MOTORBUS
PRESSED INTO SERVICE
ON THE WESTERN FRONT
IN FRANCE AS A TRAVELING PIGEON LOFT.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

FROM A RECENT PHOTO-GRAPH OF THE KING OF THE BELGIANS.

Who Now Confers on Mr.
Hoover, United States
Food Administrator, the Title of "Citizen of Belgium and Friend of the Belgian Nation," an Honor Not Hitherto Bestowed in Belgian History, in Recognition of
Mr. Hoover's Services to Belgium's Famishing People.

The Permission to Publish
This Photograph Was Obtained by the Belgian Legation in Washington.

AMERICANS ON THE SIDE
LINES OF A BASEBALL GAME BETWEEN AMERICAN
TEAMS ON GERMAN SOIL
"SOMEWHERE IN ALSACE."

AMERICAN STRETCHER BEARERS BRINGING IN WOUNDED TO AN AMERICAN
DRESSING STATION A SHORT DISTANCE
BEHIND THE FRONT LINES IN FRANCE.

GENERAL PERSHING AND STAFF ARRIVING AT A RAILROAD STATION ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

(Photos © International Film Service.)