

AMERICANS FIGHTING IN FRANCE

SERGEANT JOHN E. HANNON AND PRIVATE JOHN B. SHEEHY OF YONKERS, N. Y., American Ambulance Unit No. 552, Are Decorated by a French General with the French War Cross. (International Film Service.)

AMERICAN SOLDIERS AND MARINES ATTENDING A RECEPTION AT THE AMERICAN CLUB MAINTAINED FOR THEIR BENEFIT AT TOURS, FRANCE. (Photos Central News Service.)

KING GEORGE V., ACCOMPANIED BY CLARENCE R. EDWARD, REVIEWING TROOPS. (© Underwood)

A CONVALESCENT AMERICAN ARRIVING AT THE HOTEL. (Photos Internat.)

AN AMERICAN Y. M. C. A. ENTERTAINING WOUNDED "YANKS" FROM A MILITARY HOSPITAL BEHIND THE FRENCH LINES.

AMERICAN TROOPS, ON THEIR ARRIVAL IN ITALY, MARCHING INTO THEIR CAMP BEHIND THE FIGHTING LINES. (Western Newspaper Union.)

AMERICANS WITH SOME OF THEIR "YOUNG LADY FRIENDS" BEHIND THE LINES IN FRANCE.

THE Y. M. C. A. CLUB FOR AMERICAN OFFICERS AT TOURS.

AN AMERICAN AND A FRENCH SOLDIER ON SENTRY DUTY ON GERMAN SOIL IN ALSACE.

GENERAL PLUMER OF THE BRITISH ARMY REVIEWING AMERICAN TROOPS. (© Underwood)