

THE THREE REMAINING CARDINALS OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH ON THE NORTH AMERICAN CONTINENT, with Their Attendants, Preceded by Archbishop Bonzano, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, and the Ministers of the Mass, Arriving at St. Patrick's Cathedral for the Funeral on Last Tuesday of John Cardinal Farley, Archbishop of New York. From Left to Right, in the Successive Groups, Are: Archbishop Bonzano and the Ministers of the Mass, James Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore, William Cardinal O'Connell of Boston and Louis Cardinal Beaudry of Quebec.

FORMER SENATOR CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW

Delivering the Principal Address at the Unveiling of the Heroic Statue of Himself, a Present from Himself, and Erected in a Park Given by and Named for Himself at His Birthplace, Peekskill, N. Y.

CARDINAL GIBBONS, by Rank and by His Eighty-four Years, Senior Cardinal of North America, in the Funeral Procession of Cardinal Farley.

(Paul Thompson.)

PRESIDENT POINCARE DECORATING GENERAL PERSHING WITH THE GRAND CROSS OF THE LEGION OF HONOR, the Ceremony Taking Place in Front of General Pershing's Headquarters.

GENERAL PERSHING Wearing for the First Time the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor.

(Photos © Committee on Public Information.)

THE PRESIDENTIAL SMILE

in Response to the Cheers and Good-byes of the President's Former Neighbors on His Leaving Princeton Last Week After Voting in the New Jersey Primaries.

(Times Photo Service.)

"ALL FOR ONE, ONE FOR ALL"; THE THREE MUSKETEERS OF THE AIR.

They Are, Left to Right: Lieut. Barbreau, Eight Victories; Lieut. Coiffard, Twenty-five Victories, and Adjutant Ehrlich, Fifteen Victories.

PRESIDENT WILSON, WITH MRS. WILSON, AT HIS OLD HOME FOR THE NEW JERSEY SENATORIAL PRIMARIES ON LAST TUESDAY, GREETING A FRIEND ON THE PRINCETON CAMPUS.

(Times Photo Service.)

(Press Illustrating Service.)