

A COLLECTION OF BELLS, CANDELABRAS, AND CRUCIFIXES RIFLED FROM THE CHURCHES OF FRANCE, AND ABOUT TO BE SHIPPED TO BERLIN, FOUND IN A GERMAN ENCAMPMENT BY THE ADVANCING FRENCH. A Number of German Helmets Also Left Behind by Their Owners in Their Great Haste in Behalf of "Safety First."

(International Film Service.)

(Underwood & Underwood.)

AMERICAN OFFICERS, SIGHTSEEING AT VERSAILLES, MAKING A CONTRIBUTION FOR THE DEPENDENTS OF THE FRENCH VETERANS OF THE SECOND BATTLE OF THE MARNE.

SAMUEL GOMPERS,

President of the American Federation of Labor, Responding to a Toast at the Luncheon in London Given in His Honor by the British Government, David Lloyd George, the British Prime Minister, Being Seated on His Right.

THE NEW AND POWERFUL FRENCH "280" SHELL TO BE USED AGAINST THE FORTRESSES OF THE RHINE.

(Gilliams Service.)

AN AMERICAN KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS CANTEEN AT FISMES, FRANCE, WITHIN SEVENTY-FIVE YARDS OF THE FRONT-LINE TRENCHES, DISTRIBUTING SWEETS AND "SMOKES" AMONG THE MEN OF THE FOURTEENTH AMERICAN ENGINEERS.

(Photos International Film Service.)

"THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT" AMONG K. C. SECRETARIES IN FRANCE, the "Short" Being "Bizz" Mackay, a Well-Known Field Athlete and Marathon Runner of New York.

AMERICANS, JUST ARRIVED IN PARIS AND BEFORE STARTING OUT ON A SIGHTSEEING TRIP, STUDYING A MAP OF THE CITY AT AN ENTRANCE TO THE PARIS SUBWAY.