

THE FRENCH MEMORIAL SOCIETY HONORING THE GRAVES OF THE AMERICAN SOLDIERS WHO FELL IN THE CAPTURE OF BELLEAU WOOD, Now Called, in Their Honor, the "Wood of the Americans," the Principal Address of the Occasion Being Delivered by Commander Wafiu.

(Photos © French Pictorial Service.)

A SECTION OF THE FRENCH MEMORIAL SOCIETY, ON ITS WAY TO BELLEAU WOOD, PASSING THROUGH A RUINED VILLAGE NEAR CHATEAU-THIERRY.

AMERICAN VICTORS ENTERING THE MAIN STREET OF THIAUCOURT, MURTHE-ET-MOSELLE, ALMOST DIRECTLY IN FRONT OF METZ.

THE ENTIRE PROCESSION OF THE NEWLY ORGANIZED FRENCH MEMORIAL SOCIETY APPROACHING THE "WOOD OF THE AMERICANS" THROUGH THE MAIN STREET OF A RUINED VILLAGE.

AMERICANS WITH THEIR MASCOTS ENCAMPIING ON THE SLOPE OF A LORRAINE HILL.

CAUSEWAY THROWN ACROSS THE MEUSE AT SAN MIHIEL BY THE AMERICANS TO REPLACE THE STONE BRIDGE DESTROYED BY THE RETREATING GERMANS.

PRESIDENT AND MME. POINCARE AND PREMIER CLEMENCEAU MAKING THEIR ENTRY ON FOOT INTO SAN MIHIEL, RESTORED TO FRANCE BY THE AMERICANS.