

A BOLSHEVIK MONGOL RECEIVING PUNISHMENT AT THE HANDS OF THE COSSACKS IN SIBERIA.

With a List of His Crimes Written on His Collar, He Is Required to Stand at the City Gate for a Week or More to be Gazed Upon by Passers By.
(Times Photo Service.)

TO PREVENT FURTHER SENSATIONAL ESCAPES BY GERMAN U-BOATS INTERNED IN SPANISH HARBORS, This Submarine, About to be Sent to England, Has Been Lashed to the Spanish Armored Cruiser Pelayo.
(Times Photo Service.)

GENERAL ATAMAN SEMENOFF,

Cossack "Free Lance," Who Recently Declared Himself Ruler of the Transbaikal, Siberia, and Broke Communications Across the Siberian Railway, in His Private Car. (Times Photo Service.)

JOHN F. STEVENS, Designer of the Panama Canal, and Now at the Head of the American Engineers Rehabilitating the Siberian Railroad, Viewing a Baseball Game Between Teams of His Staff at Harbin, Manchuria. Seated on His Left Is Frank Cole, an Associate.
(Times Photo Service.)

SCENE AT THE UNITED STATES ARMY OBSERVATION BALLOON SCHOOL AT ARCADIA, CALIFORNIA.

FURLOUGHED MEN OF THE AMERICAN THIRD ARMY, OCCUPYING A SECTOR OF THE RHINELAND,

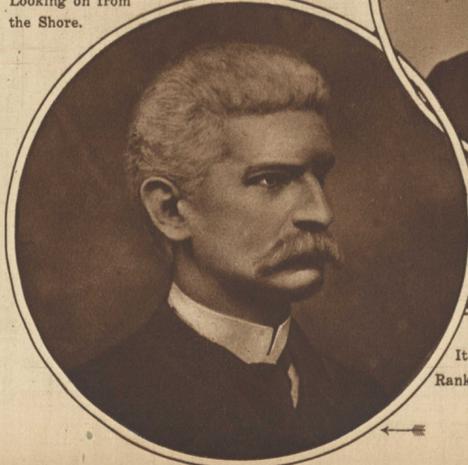

Out for a Day's Excursion Down the Rhine on One of the River Boats Operated by the Army and the Y. M. C. A., General Joseph T. Dickman, Commander of the Third Army, With an Aid, Looking on from the Shore.

(Bain News Service.)

GIRL SKIERS OUT FOR THE SEASON'S FINAL RACE ON LAKE PLACID.

(Allison.)

PREMIER ORLANDO, Head of the Italian Delegation, at the World Peace Conference. From a New Photograph Just Received in This Country.
(Times Photo Service.)

BARON BONNINO, Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Ranking Second in the Italian Peace Delegation.
(Times Photo Service.)

MEN OF THE AMBULANCE COMPANY OF THE 165TH REGIMENT, OLD "FIGHTING 69TH," NEW YORK CITY, RAINBOW DIVISION, AT BAD-MEUNERH, RHINELAND.