Sheffield Plate

—Porringers for Many Uses

PUT THEM on your table as bonbon dishes, as individual nut trays, as cracked ice or loaf sugar holders, for olives, for saucers, for serving berries and other desserts, or about the house as ash receivers and as pin trays.

Made of Sheffield Plate, that artistic Georgian ware of pure silver laid on copper, these deep, handled dishes which were originally designed for children's use may appropriately be employed in many ways.
