

Scene at the funeral of the late Joseph H. Choate as the cortege was leaving St. Bartholomew's Church. Among the honorary pallbearers were Mayor Mitchel (1), Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, President Lowell of Harvard, President Butler of Columbia and others.

Photo © Bain News Service

Oral Hygiene to the rescue! A group of the Chinese pupils in the school of Dr. Louise C. Ball receiving a lesson in cleansing the teeth.

Photo © American Press Association.

The new local armory law forbidding alien enemies from living within prescribed zones will affect 20,000 Germans. Here are shown a number seeking permits to remain in the zones at Marshal McCarthy's office.

Photo © American Press Association

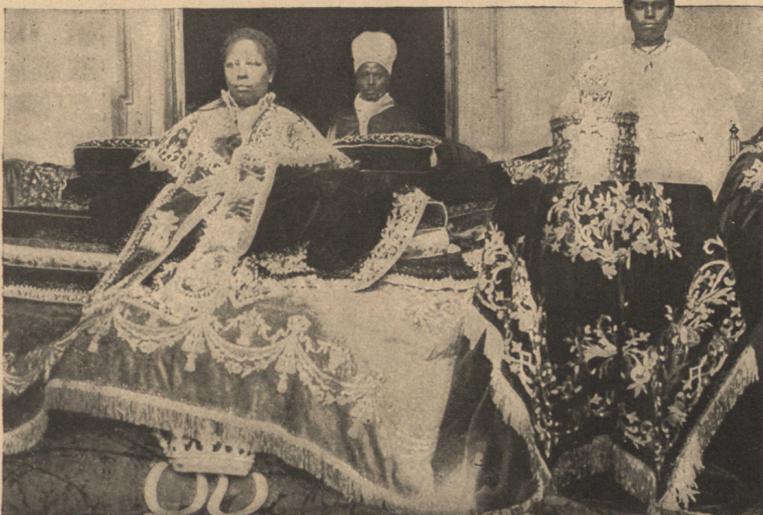

Four executives' sons in training at Fort McPherson, Ga. Left to right, Charles Brown, son of ex-Governor Brown of Georgia; Hugh Comer, son of ex-Governor Comer of Alabama; S. J. Catts, jr., son of the Governor of Florida, and Dan Fowle, son of ex-Governor Fowle of North Carolina.

Photo © Underwood & Underwood

The Public Schools Athletic League holds its ninth annual fete in Prospect Park, Brooklyn. More than 8,000 girls took part in a dance around a veritable forest of Maypoles.

Photo © International Film Service

Zeoditu, Queen of Abyssinia, dons her crown at the coronation ceremonies at Addis Abeba. She is here shown in her regalia just before the ceremony.

Photo Pictorial Press

Above is a boat load of Brooklyn troops on their way South, to fill the ranks which will be vacated when Pershing's forces are sent to France. Crossing to Jersey City, the first lap of their journey, is setting here.

Photo © International Film Service