

AMONG US MORTALS

DRAWN BY W. E. HILL
THE KITCHEN

Josie, who was out most of the night at the ball of the North Side Social Club, takes a nip of cooking sherry to help her through the day.

Cook, who is helping her sister's family over the hard times, finds it just as convenient not to meet any of the household on her way out.

Miss Mary, who has been taking a course in scientific cooking, tries to show Delia just how to run the kitchen on a system of calories and proteids.

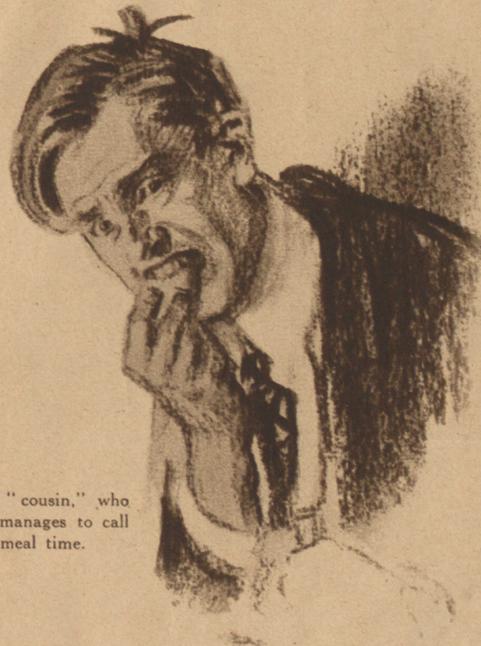

"Oh, he wants to know where his eggs is, does he? Well, you tell him, with my compliments, he'll get 'em when I get good an' ready!"

Mrs. Roblee gives Annie a few last instructions before the dinner. Annie is sure that in her last place they served the salad and soup together,—and why can't she do it that way here?

The kitchen on ironing day—quite the best place in the house to play in.

Annie's "cousin," who always manages to call around meal time.
