

MOROCCO'S PART IN THE WAR

Morocco has been of the greatest help to France, supplying not only men but large quantities of food as well.—General Lyautey, former Governor of Morocco, decorating officers of Morocco on the High Plain of Moulouga Pictorial Press.

Mapping the great Atlas Mountains. Pictorial Press.

Military operations on the High Moulouga. Troops camped at Tunhadit. Pictorial Press.

The Cohan Revue 1918

Nora Bayes furnishes the backbone for the Cohan Revue of this year. Irving Fisher is also in the picture. White.

Charles Winger looks like Leo Ditrichstein, talks like Leo Ditrichstein, and is Leo Ditrichstein in this Revue. White.

Some of the attendants at the "Wedding of Words and Music." This number has all the "go" of Mr. Cohan's earliest musical productions and the skill of his latter-day work. White.