

A skating rink alongside one of the British war vessels at Archangel.

Central News

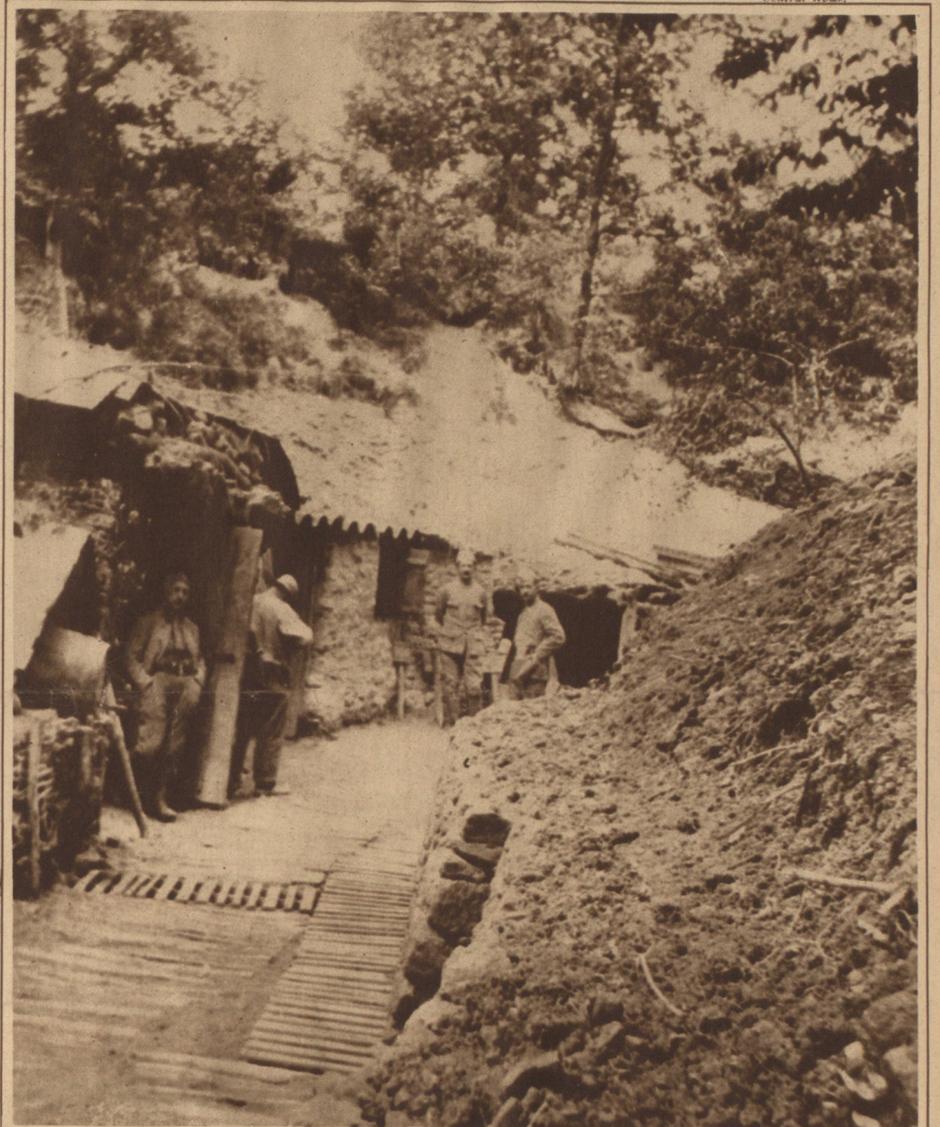

Russian peasants standing on the ice waiting till a British warship, in the wake of an icebreaker, has passed. Planks in the foreground are ready to be pushed over the broken ice. The traffic across the river is ordinarily suspended for only ten minutes. Archangel is seen in the background.

Central News

In the Vosges mountains barbed wire entanglements become less formidable.

Kadel & Herbert

This intricate French trench and dug-out in the Alsace has a floor and tiled roof. The trees in this particular region have not suffered from shell fire.

Inter. Film

Bombing the Kaiser—a very popular amusement with French soldiers.

Kadel & Herbert

Another new occupation for women—a forestry corps at work in England.

Central News